VISION
Smith River
2019-04-03

Dear Jesus,

4 October 1999.

IN THIS VISION:

I am in the air looking down. I see a Man of God standing on the rocky bank of the Smith River in the Northern most part of California. I see that there is an Open Book in his left hand. His Right Hand is raised up to Heaven. He stands there, not saying a word, but I can sense the power of the Word of God flowing from his Left Hand through his Right. He stands, prophesying the Whole Council of God to the River.

I look up, and see the Principalities of Darkness prepare to make their descent upon the Man. I see these evil spirits fall like lightning.

But they do not see the Shield. It is invisible to the naked eye, and it surrounds the Man in a sphere, about fifty feet in any direction. The demonic spirits crash into the Shield and bounce to the ground, stunned and in dis-array.

The Shield is invisible, but shimmers transparent and can be seen with the Eyes of Faith. As the Man of God stands and continues to prophesy, the Shield begins to expand.

Within the expanse of the shield, evil has no place. Faith is restored. Hope is renewed. The Earth is regenerated, and the Love of God springs forth in New Flames burning with Great Heat.

END OF VISION.
