VISION
The Eagle, The Dove, and the Sparrows
2019-04-03

Dear Jesus,

12 November 1999 - 6:30PM Pacific time (Pacific means Peaceful).

IN THIS VISION:

I saw the man of God and overheard what the Most Precious Holy Spirit was saying to him, and it was given to me to know his thoughts . I saw the Man of God's left hand clenched in a fist, and inside of his fist was something he held most dear and precious. The (Lord Holy) Spirit nudged him and gave him the knowledge that he needed to give up what was most dear to him, and make Christ Jesus dearest of all. So I saw that he (the Man of God) opened his left hand, and in it there was a Dove, Pure and White.

At first the Man of God thought that the Dove would fly away, but it did not. Instead it nestled down into the palm of his hand began to lay eggs. The eggs hatched immediately, so that out from under the Dove flew Sparrows. So many Sparrows that they began to fill the Sky above.

Then I saw the Man of God open his clenched Right Hand, and therein was a Bald Eagle. Not a small eagle, but large and majestic. The Eagle flew off into the sky with the Sparrows, but the Dove remained in the Left Hand of the Man of God.

And I was given the knowledge that the Eagle was the Lord Protector of the Sparrows.

Amen.

END OF VISION.
