DREAM
Standing Watch
2017-06-18

Dear Dan,

Sometime while I was working at my Father's old job, I think in 1998, I had a dream. At the time of the dream, one side of my bed was pushed up against an exterior wall of the bedroom.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was asleep in my bed. There were two demons who were trying to break into my bedroom from the outside. They were clawing at the exterior siding, and I was resisting them while I was asleep. Then I awoke.

END OF DREAM.

It was a normal work night, so I got up and made ready for work. But I felt lifeless and drained of energy.

After I got to work I the best I could to stay alert and awake by listening to my FM radio, and praying to God for help.

Finally, when I was vacuuming in the Finance Offices, the Lord sent remedy by means of two songs. With these two songs, the power, or spell that the demons had afflicted me with were broken.

The two songs that played back to back on KZOK-FM that night were my two favorite Classic Rock songs of all time:

1. All Along The Watchtower - performed by Jimi Hendrix
2. Won't Get Fooled Again - by The Who

Thank You Jesus for this Your Ministry of Deliverance.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
