

Letter 16
Fulfillment of Job 5:12
2011-09-04

Dear Dan,

While sitting at my desk at this moment, still contemplating on where to go next in my letters to you, I came across something I wrote, most likely in late 1996. It is a true account of what I would say was the first Evidential Revelation of the Lord’s work against the Spirit of Witchcraft, in my life and subsequently in the Ministry He is choosing to pursue in the World through my angel associates and me. When I wrote at the time in what amounted to a personal journal entry, I wanted to try to write in a late 17th century English style, such as Shakespearian or The King James Bible. Just for fun. So that’s why it may sound — different. :) Here it is...

=====

Fulfillment of Job 5:12
By CT Janitor 1996

(Regarding my recovery from the motorcycle wreck on 7-15-1995) As part of my recovery I required therapeutic massage. Two therapists, working under the auspices of my physical therapist, were assigned to me.

One was less honorable and, being practiced in the Craft, sought filthy lucre by my misfortune, and said to herself in my hearing, "I will gain a down payment for a new carriage, for this man's injuries are extensive, and will require many visits to my parlor".

Whereby the Lord stood in the way of her wicked intent, and took up the cause of His injured servant. He straightaway sent an angel to her private house, who caused her injury in like manner to her patient, having her leg broken in six places and requiring a titanium rod also. This was so that the Scripture might be fulfilled;

*"He disappointeth the devices of the crafty,
so that their hands cannot perform [their] enterprise"*
(Job 5:12 KJV).

The Witch never laid a hand on me again, but we saw each other once later at the Massage Clinic, and I perceived she was aware of the True Source of her misfortune when she said to me in passing;

“... well, I guess accidents do happen”.

What was interesting is that, when she was speaking, I looked her in her eyes, and all I could see was Honesty, rather than the Voice of Evil Opportunity. It seems likely then that she was delivered from Witchcraft by the means of this supposed “accident”.

Amen.
Blessings...