The Day of 7 - Part 7a
DREAM
The Trailer
2011-10-20

Another way was by this dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was sleeping outside in front of a small travel trailer, I think not far from an ocean beach. Then I felt the Mighty Winds of the Holy Spirit, as if produced by a huge fan, on my back.

The Air flowed from underneath the Trailer around me with exceeding great force and velocity, yet I remained in a state of peaceful repose.

And in the dream I was given to understand that the Wind of Blessing was blowing away the Curses of Satan. All of them. The curses through my own family. The curses through my wife's family. The ancient curses of the Original American Tribes.

All blown away.

The Wind felt the same on my spirit man as the Spiritual Massage felt (see Letter 29 Volume 1).

END OF DREAM.

Blessings...
