

Letter 32
The Day of 7 - Part 10
"The Word Against Snoqualm"
2011-10-28

Dear Dan,

One day while at work, in the second half of my night at the school while on break, I was talking with (CB3) on my cell phone. We were talking about some things in my life that were burdensome to me, when out of the blue he said: "what is The Word Against Snoqualm?"

I asked "say what?", being surprised at the very sudden and complete change of subject. "What is The Word Against Snoqualm?" he repeated.

I don't remember the rest of the conversation, but I do know that he and I had never before spoken together of anyone by that name, nor had I ever heard of anything other than City of Snoqualmie, Snoqualmie Falls, Snoqualmie Pass, and Snoqualmie Indian Tribe. I had never before heard the words truncated like that to just Snoqualm.

As soon as I went back to work I took this new subject to the Lord in prayer. A few days later I was directed by the Lord (through angel Gabe) to go to Denny Creek Park. It was in April 2000, and there was still snow on the ground.

Again, angel Gabe indicated that I was going to "vacuum up a ghost" or words like that, like I did in Letter 26. And I brought the digital camera along in case I saw some cool pictures along the way.

We parked at a bridge and walked (ok, I walked and the angels must have floated or something) into Denny Creek Park. After looking around and getting some pretty good photo shots we went back to the bridge. It was then that I was directed to go and stand in the middle of the bridge and wait upon the Lord.

So I did that. And shortly thereafter, Gabe and Company brought Snoqualm to me, an old evil spirit that had been lurking in the woods there in Snoqualmie Valley since men inhabited it. The Angels then somehow "pushed" Snoqualm into my body. I could feel an additional pressure inside me for a short time. Then they took Snoqualm out of me, took him into custody and away to be incarcerated in the Pit.

And so came to an end the long rule of Snoqualm over the people of the Snoqualmie Valley.

May the Lord Jesus Christ and the Gospel of His Kingdom be proclaimed throughout the land and endure forever. Amen.

Blessings...

Romanus Theophilus

P.S.

I often wondered why this procedure was used, especially since (so far) I can find no Scriptural precedent for such a maneuver. But I am reminded of the general “Greater Things” clause for the last days. So, I guess I put this event in that category. But let the reader know this. I take the Bible at its Word, and even more where it says “try the spirits, to see whether they be of God.” (1 John 4:1) and “These were more fair-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness, and searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so. (Acts 17:11)”.
