

Letter 52
Christians Don't Die
2011-12-27

Dear Dan,

The next night after Dad died I was sitting at my desk wondering how to do everything, and being reassured that the Lord had everything under His control, I wanted to write something in remembrance of my Father, but that would be a blessing to all Believers. Attached is what the Lord gave to me.

Blessings...

Romanus Theophilus

Letter 52
Poem
LIVE IN THE SKY

Christians don't die.
They sleep in the dust
And Live in the Sky.

Apart from the Body
Is present with the Lord,
Enjoying an Eternal Hobby.

And then Resurrection
Not being delayed.
A finished Sanctification.

New Body, New Heart,
With Him forever.
Not bad for a New Start.

Christians don't die.
We sleep in the dust
And Live in the Sky.

By Romanus Christian Theophilus
In Honor of My Father
7 March 1936 - 29 October 2007