DREAM
“Sing The Book of Psalms”
Part 1
2021-08-19

Dear Yeshua,

The following is derived from audio notes I recorded.

Sunday, 10 January 2021, 7:37AM.

This is Part 1 of a dream report. To preface, here is a quote from Letter 876i,
“This morning just before waking I had a dream, which is about singing the Psalms. Then on my way out the bedroom door to the bathroom I looked at my iPhone, which I do every morning. There on the lock-screen was a notification from my youngest brother who lives in Maryland.

While I still was asleep and having the dream, he had sent me a link to a YouTube video (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=961ihcx4PoQ>) where some Church members are singing Psalm 50 in Aramaic. This was immediate confirmation of the dream I just had, which will be documented in the next Letter(s).”
(What follows is that documentation.)

I woke up a little before 6:30AM from a dream. This dream had many components, which I will list here:

- 1) Operations manual for some equipment
- 2) Boxes of (very tasty) donuts
- 3) Room with copy machines
- 4) Hallway
- 5) Men in the hallway talking about God and Jesus
- 6) Bench seat in the hallway
- 7) Obscured and forgotten writing etched in stone (placed during original construction) which had words glorifying God on one of the hallway walls, located at the top along where the wall met the ceiling
- 8) New Christian Brother
- 9) Topic of conversation - spiritual warfare
- 10) Words of Encouragement
- 11) The Best Weapon - Sing the Book Psalms, Sing the Book Psalms
- 12) The Blood of the Lamb

I DREAMED THAT:

I was at the place that reminded me of the hospital (G6), where I was working as an employee. I was searching in a series of rooms, looking for an operation manual to some equipment which I wanted to read. While searching for the manual, I found boxes of very tasty donuts and other pastries inside a room which had copying and other business machines.

Then, I found myself outside of the rooms and standing in a corridor next to a bench. I wanted to sit, but I remained standing. Not far from where I was in the hall were some other men talking with one another about God and Jesus.

I wanted to talk with them, so I drew near and joined in the conversation.

That's when I noticed some writing etched in stone-like concrete of an upper portion of one of the hallway walls written during original construction. The writing consisted of words of either the Book of Psalms or other Holy Writings which glorified God. I could tell that the words were of ancient origin.

While the writing had become obscured over the years by other things having been placed in front of the various words, I could look around the obstructions and see the message.

Next, I find myself seated on the bench seat next to a guy who was telling me that he was a New Christian. Then I discerned that the main topic of what the other men were talking about was Spiritual Warfare.

I was trying to find words of of encouragement to the Young Man of being a New Believer. Then we both got up from the bench and started to walk down the hallway. Suddenly I stopped him in the midst of the corridor and spoke these words directly the Young Man:

"THE BEST WEAPON YOU CAN HAVE IS TO SING THE PSALMS.
SING THE BOOK OF PSALMS.
AND ALSO THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB."

END OF DREAM.

After waking from this dream, I got out of bed, and as I walked toward the bedroom door to get to the bathroom down the hallway, I looked at my iPhone which is placed on a small table. It was then that I saw the message from my brother about singing Psalm 50 in Aramaic, which I reported in Letter Letter 876j.

I spent the next few hours thinking about this dream, then wrote an email to some others describing this event.

Blessings...
