

Letter 883
DREAM
Saving The Second Amendment
2021-03-22

Dear Yeshua,

Monday, 22 March 2021, 4:10AM.

I was wanting to write a quick note describing why I haven't written much in the way of general testimony Letters recently. But I think the (redacted) contents of an email I sent to two Brethren a few days ago will provide a better starting point.

BEGIN EMAIL:

Sent 03/21/2021 (9:42AM-PST)

Greetings Brethren

Reading (...)’s testimony about PencilPoint gave me some encouragement. I was about to email both (...) and (...) that I did not have much energy to write these days because of the routine wrestling matches in which I find myself when I sleep. Most of these are accompanied with revelatory dreams, which I then recount in audio recordings for later transcription.

For instance, just this morning I was dreaming that I had acquired all the sidearms which the Lord Holy Spirit is directing me to purchase.

But I woke up tired, sore, and with elevated blood pressure. This was because in the dream I was wrestling against those (HR) forces hell-bent on denying Americans the fruit and benefits of the Second Amendment (which if abolished, would lead to the abolition of the rest of the Bill of Rights).

There are two more sidearms which the Lord has specified to me He wants me to purchase. One is a .357 AirLite* revolver. The other is a 9MM (either revolver or semi-automatic). Both are Smith & Wesson.

But after reading this most recent installment of (...)’s Testimony, I was strengthened to document at least this much about my dream.

Here are links to the firearms.

END EMAIL.

I had woke up from this dream yesterday morning. Then I spent all the rest of yesterday recovering from the stress I experienced in the few seconds of the dream. And, according to angel Gabe, I will still be recovering for the rest of today.

I guess I shouldn't be surprised by the lengthy recovery time. According to the Lord Holy Spirit, I wrestled with the HR leadership who had previously been assigned by Satan to the destruction of the Second Amendment.

That's a whole of of satanic opposition to resist and overcome in a very short period of time.

Before I retired, I would average writing at least one Letter per week. Now, I am fortunate to average one Letter per month, if that. (I would encourage the Reader to take a look at the number of Letters in each Volume - (<http://www.letterstodan.com/Volume00>) to get a good idea of how many Letters I have averaged in previous years.)

It's not that I have a lack of content. I have very much content. But after each night's wrestling matches, I just don't have the energy (strength) to put words down on paper (or, as in this case, produce characters from a keyboard to display on a video screen and preserve as a PDF document).

As I wrote in the email, I have the strength to audio record Dreams, Visions, and what I call Field Reports. So, important things that I experience and/or witness are preserved; just not in a way which can be easily shared.

Here is the Second Amendment to the Constitution of the United States as documented at Wikipedia.com.

The final, handwritten original of the Bill of Rights as passed by Congress, with the rest of the original prepared by scribe William Lambert, is preserved in the National Archives. This is the version ratified by Delaware and used by the Supreme Court in District of Columbia v. Heller:

"A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed."

Some state-ratified versions omitted the first or final commas, such as Maryland's:

"A well regulated Militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed."

The ratification acts from New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and South Carolina contained only one comma, but with differences in capitalization. Pennsylvania's act states:

"A well regulated Militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms shall not be infringed."

The ratification act from New Jersey has no commas:

"A well regulated Militia being necessary to the security of a free State the right of the people to keep and bear Arms shall not be infringed."

And it is toward this end that the Lord had me procure a Concealed Pistol License along with a variety of handguns: that by doing so we are prophesying the preservation of the Second Amendment, along with the rest of the Bill of Rights.

*This is a correction. In the email I had written "AirLight".

Blessings...
