Dear Yeshua,

Saturday, 11 September 2021, 8:30AM.

Twenty years ago today the United States was attacked by a god who I understand is identified in the Koran as Allah. According to news reports at that time, this attack had been preplanned for some time, and then executed by a small group of Allah's purported followers, the chief of which was named Osama Bin Laden.

Bin Laden was later revealed to be the head architect and primary planner of what was to become a most horrific attack on United States soil. This was the skyjacking and subsequent purposeful ramming of civilian jet aircraft into select targets. The two most prominent targets were the two World Trade Center towers in New York city. A third successful target was the Pentagon.

But a fourth plane, United Airlines Flight 93, never made it to its intended target, as a group of courageous passengers, with the leadership of one Todd Beamer, wrestled back control of the airliner from the skyjackers and rammed it into the ground in Pennsylvania.

Right after the attacks on 9/11, the U.S. learned that Osama Bin Laden had taken refuge in Afghanistan. The Taliban then helped Osama Bin Laden by hiding him and giving him safe passage.

So, the U. S. engaged in a war to overthrow the government of Afghanistan, which at the time was occupied by a muslim group called the Taliban, and overthrew the Taliban as a form of just retribution, putting in its place a new government.

While this was a way for the U. S. to exact revenge on its enemy, it also relieved the Afghani civilian population from a tyrannical government which, among other atrocities, had made listening to any kind of music a capital crime. Someone caught listening to music would be executed through beheading.

Ever since the overthrow of the Taliban, until just recently, the U. S. has had a military and diplomatic presence in Afghanistan, while at the same time making a way for an Afghani civilian government to take shape.

This new Afghani civilian government included women, and many personal liberties were restored to the people of Afghanistan which had been eliminated by the Taliban.

But all this has come to a sudden and tragic end.

Joe Biden, the supposed president who at present occupies the White House, suddenly removed all U. S. military presence out of Afghanistan, setting a deadline of 31 August 2021, with the final military airlift flying out on 30 August 2021.

So now, the New Taliban, which has been re-formed over the last ten or so years, has retaken all political power in Afghanistan.

To add insult to injury, I read in a recent news report that the New Taliban was re-formed by a terrorist who had been captured early in the war on terror and sent to the U.S. military brig at Guantanamo Bay, but who was later released by then President Obama.

After seeing the debacle that (supposed president) Joe Biden put the United States through with his decision to make this sudden retreat, it was very difficult for me not to become physically ill.

The only reason I did not become any more upset by this event, is because the Lord Holy Spirit helped me by leading me to remember and actualize the Scripture where it says:

The Book of Isaiah

Chapter 40

Verse 31

But those who wait on the Lord
Shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings like eagles,
They shall run and not be weary,
They shall walk and not faint.

It is my personal belief** that King Jesus will intervene in the nation of Afghanistan by activating His doctrine found in this Scripture:

The Book of Genesis

Chapter 50

Verse 20

But as for you, you meant evil against me;
but God meant it for good,
in order to bring it about as it is this day,
to save many people alive.

**I only believe those things which I know to be true for fact-certain. It is the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth, who informs me of the intentions of King Jesus regarding the disposition of this matter.

P. S. I also read in a very recent news report that (supposed president) Joe Biden plans on doing the same thing to Iraq that he has just done to Afghanistan. It is my personal prayer that Yahweh will oppose (supposed president) Joe Biden in this matter, and will not allow him to prevail in his plans of betrayal and abandonment toward the people of Iraq, which he has just done to the people of Afghanistan.

(SPECIAL NOTE 2021-09-13: The other day as I was out walking, I spoke with (CB41) by phone. In the course of our conversation we spoke of the anniversary of 9/11. He then began to remind me of a dream he had relayed to me some years ago. This was a dream someone had on 9/10/2001. In the dream, Jesus was seen as having a young maiden laying face down across his knees. He was paddling her due to her waywardness. The young maiden was the United States. The next day the attacks on 9/11 happened.)

Blessings...
