Dear Yeshua,

Friday, 24 December 2021, 2:13PM

I initially woke up this morning way early, like about 2:30AM. I stayed up till about 6:30 so I could feed and medicate my dogs. Then I went back to bed.

I woke up at about 8AM from a two part dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

Part 1- Trump's Good Idea Angel

I was inside a room which was inside a store-front type building which I owned. The room had typical furnishings located in the usual spots. But also in the room was a Chest Freezer. I had put various food stuffs in the freezer, along with some Special Ice Cream, which had been invented by the previous President of the United States, who had served only one term.

Next, I find myself talking to a guy who had been that same President of the United States for one term. He was a rather young man for having been President. He seemed to be in his mid to late thirties, slender, with dark hair. I could tell he was a genius type. We were talking about various ingenious ideas he had, and whether he should run for a second term. He had served his first term already, but had not been re-elected for a second contiguous term. But he was saying to me that he was thinking about trying for a second term anyway. One of the ideas he had was a special recipe for Ice Cream. And I already had some of his Special Ice Cream in my freezer.

Part 2- Wicked Legalistic Recall Lady

While the former President and I were still talking, a Strange Lady came suddenly walking through the door and into the room from the hallway. She walked right past me and over to my freezer. Then she opened the top lid and took out the Special Ice Cream, saying that the Ice Cream was being recalled.

So I asked her;

“WHAT’S THE PROBLEM?”

The Strange Lady sort of stumbled over her words, then said that there was actually no problem, it was just being recalled.

Then I remarked that I was not going to submit the Ice Cream to the recall if there was no problem, and I took the Ice Cream away from her and put it back in my freezer.

But she was pretty adamant about wanting to take the Ice Cream even though she couldn't tell me what the problem was.

She was just telling me it was being recalled.

My position to her was;

“WELL, NO.”
“THERE IS NOTHING WRONG WITH THE ICE CREAM.”
“YOU’RE NOT GOING TO RECALL MY ICE CREAM.”
“GET OUT OF HERE.”

END OF DREAM.
