

Letter 901
At Home Detox
2022-01-07

Dear Yeshua,

Monday, 3 January 2022, 4:27AM

Yesterday, 2 January, my wife (M) was telling me that she had gotten sick the night before, and that she wasn't feeling good. Saturday night after I went to bed, she was sitting in her TV chair and suddenly got sick. She felt feverish, a headache, and all of her bones started to hurt. She continued to feel that way after she woke up yesterday (Sunday).

As soon as I learned of her condition, I had requested prayer with three Brethren. Not long afterward, (M) started to feel better.

Here is a quote of one of the emails I sent to one of the Brethren:

BEGIN EMAIL (2 January 2022):

(...), could I ask for your prayers for my wife (...)?

Last night after I went to bed (1 January), she became suddenly ill with headache and fever. Unexplainable. Today she says all her bones ache.

Many thanks.

P. S. I think this has to do with witchcraft in her family and with some of her lady friends from High School.
END EMAIL.

When she first got sick, the thought of COVID-19 presented itself. But that is nearly impossible, as (M) literally does not leave our house, nor do (human) people come here. And, according to the Word of Yahweh, she couldn't have gotten any virus from me (see Letter 877).

This only left a spiritual cause of some kind. At first I was surprised that there was a vector for HR to attack (M). But then I learned that this wasn't an attack. According to angel Gabe, the sudden sickness came from a release of spiritual and emotional bondage in which (M) had been bound by curses of witchcraft from her own family line, and from those of her friends from High School.

It was more like a de-resonation, or detoxification from the resonance of Hell which had been "spoken" or communicated against (M) for most of her life.

Earlier in December, (M) had canceled her attendance to the annual Christmas dinner she has had with her High School Friends for decades, saying she just didn't feel like going.

Her sudden sickness came right after the Christmas and New Year holidays, which themselves have been cursed by HR. Instead of Joy and Happiness, they now represent a great burden for most people.

But this can change. A return to a true Merry Christmas and Happy New Year is possible.

All that needs to be done for this to happen is for the people of Yahweh to follow this simple, easy instruction, as it is written:

The Book of Second Chronicles

Chapter 7

Verse 14

*... if My people who are called by My name
will humble themselves,
and pray and seek My face,
and turn from their wicked ways,
then I will hear from heaven,
and will forgive their sin
and heal their land.*

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
