After leaving Church for home last night, I had an interesting experience.

I live in North Bend, so I take (...) to I-90, and head east from Issaquah.

After Highway 18, I ran into some heavy rain. This lasted for a while.

Just as I was passing exit 31 in North Bend, I noticed a man on the side of the freeway. He was caught in the downpour.

I pulled over to see if he needed a ride, and/or to just get him out of the rain.

He said he was going to Dallas, so I offered to let him in, and said that I was not going very far (my exit was the next one —exit 32).

But I said that I could take him up to the Truck Stop where he could find some shelter (this was the next exit after mine, only another mile or so).

He said "OK" and was grateful at the prospect.

On the way, we exchanged casual conversation. At one point the Lord Holy Spirit opened the door for me to speak about Jesus.

I pulled in to the gas station which has a Trucker's Chapel. Before the Traveler got out, I asked if it was OK for me to pray for him.

He answered in the affirmative.

I asked for his name, and he said it was "Travis".

I prayed for his safety and security, and that he would come to know Jesus as Lord and Savior.

I then offered him the "gas money " that I had wanted to give to you that evening.

He received it cheerfully, and said "thank you".

I thought you should know about this, since I had dedicated that money as a gift, and had wanted to give you first crack at it.

So, we both can receive the "greater blessing" of giving, since we both gave to someone in greater need.

Many Thanks Brother (...)!

Thank You Jesus.

Many Blessings,,,

Wow, fantastic testimony (...)! I love how God is working and moving in our lives and now thanks to your obedience in Travis's life. The Lord gives me Isaiah 64:8 which says,

"BUT NOW, O LORD, YOU ARE THE FATHER;
WE ARE THE CLAY, AND YOU OUR POTTER;
AND ALL WE ARE THE WORK OF YOUR HAND."

I pray that your week is filled with Victory as you walk with him. The scripture says, draw near to God and HE will draw near to you. Seek and you shall find, knock and the door shall be opened unto you.

Just a reminder I will be out of town this Sunday so I will not see you Sunday night as usual. Also, a reminder that(...)meets each and every (...) night at (...)! You are always welcome!

God Bless You, (...)!

See you soon,
