

Letter 67
DREAM
Potato Man
2012-01-16

Dear Dan,

I wasn't going to write this down, but the Lord said otherwise, and wanted me to send this to you pronto. Otherwise I'm still on "break time".

16 January 2012.

Last night I had a dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was in Redmond, Washington on the sidewalk outside an old diner. This diner had been around for a long time and for over ten years was the only 24-hour place in Redmond/Kirkland. It was called the Hotel Cafe.

There was a commotion inside, and long line of people waiting to see something. I walked in and asked someone why they were in line and was informed that they were waiting to see the "Potato Man." He had taken up a place in the Reserved Dining Room.

In order to see the Potato Man, one had to have an Access Card. These cards were the exact same paper cards as those used by Starbucks in their stores to offer free music downloads from iTunes.

The next thing I know, I have a dozen or more of these cards in my hand. I bypass the line and go directly into the Reserved Dining Room where the "Potato Man" is.

I then know several things at once.

First, the man looks like an old-time Pentecostal Preacher, with older clothes. He is taller than the crowd, and somewhat overweight.

Second, I know that he is offering Good Food, hence the name "Potato Man".

But one must pay for this good food by willingly being deceived with a False Gospel. There were a lot of people lined up for their "Meal of Deception".

Third, I know what I must do. I raise both of my hands and begin praying in a Tongue unknown to the Enemy. I pray like this for some time, knowing that the Potato Man is being overcome with the Word of God.

END OF DREAM.

NOTE: In other dreams I have had where an evil Spirit is revealed, I have awakened feeling like I have been run over by a ten-ton truck. Not this time. I actually felt good for a change.

While I was thinking about this dream before I wrote it down, I wondered about the significance of the Potato. I was answered with the knowledge that the potato is a ROOT vegetable, and is used by many as a dietary foundation (Meat & Potatoes).

Blessings...
