

Letter 69
Ramtha
 2012-02-05

Dear Dan,

When I was attending Church at (U3) and sharing angel stories with (CB3), he would sometimes in a joking manner bring up the subject of Ramtha. (CB3) would ask with a chuckle if Gabe had any plans to “go after Ramtha”, or words like that. Gabe presented a position of amusement but would not respond in any detail. I was not unaware of who Ramtha was, having seen on TV sometime in the 1980’s an interview on one of the local channels of J.Z. Knight, and her “channeling” Ramtha.

About a month or two ago Ramtha came across my “radar” again.

As you know I listen to audio at work. One of the sources of podcasts I have is Coast-To-Coast AM with George Noory (formerly with Art Bell). Periodically I review their website for things I might want to hear. On one particular weekend there was a show that had a guest host interviewing J.Z. Knight for the whole show. I saw the entry and bypassed it, not really having much interest in the subject. But after a little while Gabe started pestering me to download and listen to the show.

I tried to listen to it but got angry because I knew it was all a bunch of Satanic crap from hell. But Gabe kept after me and floated the notion that perhaps I could approach it from a more academic standpoint. That worked and I was able to listen to the whole broadcast. As I write this I will need to take a break and listen to it again because there are some points that the Lord wants to bring forth pertaining to this particular enemy.

So the next few paragraphs will be written after I have re-listened to the “Ramtha” show again.

Well Dan, I have learned some very interesting facts about J. Z. Knight and how she begin to channel Ramtha.

The following quotes are her words recorded on live radio.

Quote #1

HOST: “How did Ramtha first come to you?”

JZ: “... working in Tacoma, Washington, getting ready to marry my dentist husband, ... this book came out called “Pyramid Power”... we got this great idea; “let’s make some to scale, align ‘em at true north”... we did this night ‘n’ day, and then on Sunday afternoon... uh, there were pyramids on my stove, on my oven door, I mean all down the hall, they were everywhere ... I just started laughing, I laughed so hard it was stupid, 'cuz I felt giddy from no sleep and doing this sort of macabre thing... 2:30 in the afternoon, that's when this thing appeared in my kitchen... this being manifested in my kitchen ... he appeared three times that day ..."

Quote #2

"The Ram's not in my body- he's using the brain. He's not in it, he's manipulating my body like puppets, and using the brain, and using my brain."

Quote #3

"You know, when I was young I was in the Assembly Of God Church, and there was nothing more hell, fire and brimstone than the Assembly Of God Church, and I was in that church 'till I was thirteen years old and I was saved and baptized, I left it because they judged my sister-in-law for wearing a pale pink lipstick. She was gonna go to hell and burn, and she only did that to try get her husband to come to church and, and share Christ's message with him, and I just didn't think that was the god that I knew and that I saw that would deliberately burn my sister-in-law for wearing lipstick, so I left that, but having said that, that gives a fundamental basis of what was taught continuously ..."

Dan, additionally, in the first hour of her interview she spoke of seeing "spirits" (my term) in the fields of New Mexico when she was about three (she was born in Roswell in 1946). She was being set up at a very young age to become channeled later in life. JZ already had been exposed to "the supernatural" before her church experience, and so was easy prey when Satan used his resources (taste not, touch not, wear not) already in the Church at the time she was there to influence her to leave.

That's all I have to report on Ramtha right now.

Blessings...

Romanus Theophilus
