

Letter 78
UNBREAKABLE
 2012-03-08

Dear Dan,

A little more than a few weeks ago the Lord led me to intercede on behalf of this Nation for its use and purveyance of all things pornographic, except for those things considered "porn" by some but not by God. This was a burden indeed, and I felt personally guilty throughout that time even though I was not. The Lord accepted this sacrifice even as from His own Son.

After it was over and I begin recuperating from the trauma, I observed, and so stated in my heart before the Lord Jesus that our relationship was:

UNBREAKABLE.

I did not speak this aloud but silently before the Lord.

Hardly a week went by when the Lord gave a sign to me about this matter, and I heard a report about the Word "UNBREAKABLE" being spoken in public from a unique and highly unexpected source. It was a news report about a meeting between US President Obama and Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, with the President being quoted as saying that the relationship between the US and Israel was "UNBREAKABLE". Below is the exact quote and source:

"By msnbc.com news services:

5 March 2012 Updated at 11:55 a.m. ET: WASHINGTON -- President Barack Obama, aiming to head off any premature Israeli strike on Iran, sought to assure Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu on Monday that the United States would always "have Israel's back" but said there was still time for diplomacy. In a show of unity with an American leader with whom he has had a rocky relationship, Netanyahu said at the White House that both Israel and the United States stood together on the need to prevent Iran from obtaining nuclear weapons. For his part, Obama said

THE "BOND BETWEEN OUR TWO COUNTRIES IS UNBREAKABLE."

The two men, sitting side by side and smiling at each other in the Oval Office, sought to present a united front in the Iranian nuclear standoff after weeks of mounting concern that Israel would preemptively strike Iran on its own."

Blessings...
