

Letter 91
Break Time - Making The Turn
2012-03-26

Dear Dan,

Well, this letter marks the end of Volume 2 of the Letters To Daniel series.

As previously mentioned, I will begin a series of commentaries, Volumes Three and Four, that will discuss what was written in Volumes Two and One, all the way back to the beginning, which will complete this set. And after that I will begin work on audio productions of these letters.

But, it's time for another break. And time to think and reflect on what's next.

As I write this the Lord has made provision for me to take a full seven days off from (G6) using some vacation time. And on Saturday of this week (M) and her sister will be hosting a sixtieth wedding anniversary celebration at (G16) for their parents. It will be a pretty big deal.

During this time I hope I can recover some physically. I am really not sure how much longer I can make myself work, even with pills and stuff.

I pray you and your house are well.

In Jesus Name,

Blessings...

Romanus Theophilus

31 May 2015 ADDED SPECIAL NOTE:

I have removed the commentaries to provide more space for the Volumes. Readers are encouraged to arrive at the Lord's opinion and attitude in all things.
