

Letter 125
Proclaiming The Gospel Inside Satan's Camp
2012-06-24

Dear Dan,

2012-06-19.

The Lord recently clued me into something. Part of what the Lord is doing through us (my angelic associates and me) is to proclaim the Gospel inside the Enemy's camp in the spirit (the midst of heaven).

This happens when I listen to the Word of God in agreement. My mind is like a megaphone into the Kingdom of Hell, proclaiming the Kingship of Jesus to all.

This is taken by Satan and his enemy spirits as an insult, but that doesn't matter because it is the truth and it is by obedience to the Lord that this occurs.

That's why then I was thinking about going to the casino Satan got really angry and wanted to keep me from going. Because when the casino was first opened I would go up to play games, but also I would leave a "Jesus Loves You" pen on any machine I played. I noticed that at the bottom of each screen was a groove deep enough to hold a pen. So while I would play, I would place a pen with the Gospel facing toward the next player. I would also clip them on the toilet seat dispenser in restroom stalls that I used.

This happened a lot in the first year that the casino was open. Now, I only have a few pens left, and the casino removed some of my favorite games. So I don't go there much anymore.

Blessings...

R.C. Theophilus
