

Letter 132
 Editorial Notes ***
2012-07-23

Dear Dan,

1. The series I termed "Operational Notes" have been merged into Volume Five and renumbered Letters 128-131.

2. I will wait a little longer, but I think I have may have reached the end of the Letters To Daniel. Things still happen at work, and there is one item in process right now that will have some bearing on my future there. It may be that will provide the last topic for the final chapters.

3. If I am hearing the Lord accurately, I will be sending the complete series of letters to Pastor (CB27) of (U13), as soon as I am finished with proofreading, correcting, etc.

4. When I am all done, I will send you a data disk with the Letters in PDF format, accompanied by an updated decryption key.

P. S. Regarding Letter 123 The Casino Stroke. The Lord was proved right, His word being confirmed by the brain MRI ordered by the Neurologist. I did not have a stroke. It was indeed a lie. Nor do I seem to have Bell's palsy. So for the moment, all that has become a moot issue. Praise God.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
