

Letter 140
The Book of Acts
 2012-09-20

Dear Dan,

In 2009, just before my mandatory two-month sabbatical from (G6), I was working one night in (G6b). I could tell that both angels Gabe and Gabriella were at my side taking up (space?).

Then suddenly the Lord was speaking to the three of us. I could tell it was the Lord, and I could tell that my two angelic associates were hearing this Word of the Lord at the same time along with me.

The Lord communicated not in verbalized words that formed in my mind, but in a thought that penetrated my entire being. In this fashion the Lord commanded me/us to “STUDY THE BOOK OF ACTS”.

So, that’s exactly what I did. I listened to the audio version of Acts, more than once, and did my usual computerized study that I like to do.

I learned quite a bit, but one main topic I am trying to convey in this letter is how that the Word of God was given to both me, a human, and to two spirit people at the same time. That I find real interesting.

But I also learned a lot from Acts. Most of Acts is devoted to Paul, and throughout, each time Paul winds up in a new situation, he recounts the remarkable work of Jesus in saving his soul to eternal life. It was by recounting the story of his life and Salvation that Paul proclaimed the message of the Gospel of Eternal life.

Acts 26:19–20 (NKJV)

“Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, but declared first to those in Damascus and in Jerusalem, and throughout all the region of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, turn to God, and do works befitting repentance.”

I started this letter above this point about a week ago, and since then I began to look at Acts again. I find Paul’s job description given to him by Jesus most profound.

Here it is: (Acts 26:1, 12-18)

1Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You are permitted to speak for yourself.”... 12“While thus occupied, as I journeyed to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13at midday, O king, along the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me. 14And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew language,

'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.' 15So I said, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 16But rise and stand on your feet; for

I have appeared to you for this purpose,

to make you
>>a minister<< and >>a witness<< both of the >>things which you have seen<< and of the >>things which I will yet reveal to you.<<

17I will deliver you from the Jewish people,
as well as from the Gentiles, to whom I now send you,

18to open their eyes, in order to turn them

from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God,

that they may receive forgiveness of sins
and
an inheritance among those who are sanctified
by faith in Me.'

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
