

Letter 154
The End, For Now...
 2012-11-07

Dear Dan,

Well, now it seems clear to me that I have traversed all the areas of my life the Lord wishes to document for others to know about, at least till now, all the while maintaining a high degree of privacy for other people I have written of. It is possible that there may be some more letters and maybe some adjusting in numbering, etc. There will be comments on Volume 5. But for now I must begin working in earnest on the audio versions of the letters written so far.

The plan right now is to produce a DVD with the Letters To Daniel series, both written and audible, and all the dreams and visions I have written down, and a few other items. These will be designed to be left in strategic locations for others to discover, or to be handed to specific people as the Lord leads. Although it could change later, right now I won't be putting any Letters on the Internet. If someone else does, that's fine. A while back the Lord gave me a way cool design for the DVD label. I think you'll like it.

A few letters back I was thinking about something you said to me; how you had been pondering before the Lord the meaning of your name. And I begin wondering if there was any significance in that for me, in that I have sent the Letters To Daniel to two Saints both named "Daniel" (two witnesses). As I'm sure you already know, the name of the Jewish tribe Dan means "judge", or "to judge". By adding the name of God (El), it becomes
"God is my Judge"*.

And so the Lord is making clear to me why He has been keeping me somewhat isolated "Church-wise". Or why I typically feel more comfortable being alone with my Lord God than with my fellow man** (unless the fellow(s) I am with also want to be with God. Then I am happy to party...).

I continue to be in your debt for allowing these letters to be written and published.

Be blessed... We are loved...

R. C. Theophilus

P.S. So many letters. So many ideas. An exciting audio trek awaits us!

* So these could just as accurately be titled "Letters To God's Son. He Is My Judge"

**Except I am grateful to the Lord for my fellow (wo)man (M), without whom I would not know Who Love is.
