

Letter 154a
Civil War In The Church
2012-11-11

Dear Dan,

Some time early in the Day of 7 I was on my back deck in the evening. It was my custom at the time to smoke a cigarette outside and enjoy the evening twilight. Or sometimes I would wake up in the middle of the night and have a smoke before going back to sleep.

So it was that one night I awoke in the middle of my sleep and went out to the deck to smoke and pray before the Lord. As I was outside praying I began wondering many things about the Church. I did then and still do think a lot about Church structure and operation. As I was thinking I begin to wonder to myself how Angels could be released in the Churches. Almost immediately there was a response in my mind, not of myself, but another voice with greater authority. It said:

“SOIL RELEASE PRE-SPRAY”.

I was still in a “post-wake-up-but-I-want-to-go-back-to-sleep” fog. So I was more than a little surprised because I knew it wasn’t me that thought those words. I was still in a learning curve on how to discern when angel Gabe was speaking to me. And so I thought possibly he was the one that said those words. I was sure that I did not produce them. But that exact phrase was in my memory from the past. And, regardless of the source, I knew exactly what it meant.

Now to anyone else, that phrase would not make a whole lot of sense. But it did to me. The phrase actually was the name of a carpet care product I had used many times before. It was part of a two-step process in a style of carpet cleaning known as “spin bonnet” cleaning. As the name implies, Soil Release Pre-spray is sprayed onto the surface of the carpet that needed to be cleaned, in preparation for the second step, which is using a spin-bonnet saturated with another product called “Top Spin”. This process does a real good job in cleaning the surface of the carpet. It is used in routine periodical maintenance. Both products were manufactured by Ramsey carpet care company.

I have wondered over the years how this concept might be translated into something feasible in the Church.

At about the same time that I heard this phrase I was at a Church service at (U3). I mentioned to (CB3) that I thought there was going to be a “civil war” in the church produced by the Lord’s revealing to His people Angels that were already in the Church. (CB3) replied that he thought the “civil war” had already started.

I was recently reminded of this event, but had forgotten about it until now, when I saw the post-it below my monitor that I had written the phrase on to remind me to write about it.

So here it is.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus

P. S.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea and gathered some of every kind, which, when it was full, they drew to shore; and they sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but threw the bad away. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth, separate the wicked from among the just, and cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”

Matthew 13:47-50
