

Letter 170
The Word Against Moroni
(Mormonsim)
Part 2
2013-02-09

Dear Dan,

In the four weeks between the email exchange and the party, which occurred on 2 February 2013, I was thrust onto the “wrestling ring” with Moroni and the familiar spirit he is working through in (P9a)’s life, and by influence his family.

Plus, there is the ongoing “propaganda machine” from Satan that seeks to remove, drown out, or at least pollute the Word of God on any given subject.

But, the Word is alive in His servants, and their voice and presence is GREATER, STRONGER, SHARPER than the devil’s.

Most of what I experienced were a bunch of mental “what if” scenarios pertaining to the day of the party. Such as, I would have to contend with (P9a) wanting to “work” on me. Or that there might be an argument about why I know that Mormonism is a deception.

At one point during the month (M) said that she was wondering if a treatment from (P9a) might not help the arthritis in her knees. I reminded her of my position, but said she was free to do what she wanted.

But toward the end of January, Gabe asserted that there would be a victory. And of course, he was right (he knew this by the Lord the Holy Spirit).

Moroni himself is pretty wimpy. It is the deception, working through the words given to Joseph Smith that has the greater effect. Others who are like him gravitate toward Smith's words and agree with his “persecution” complex, thus perpetuating the doctrines of deception.

We arrived on the night of the party at my in-laws house safely. I was a little pensive at what I might have to deal with, but that was mollified by the Word given to Gabe about certain victory.

(P9) had arranged so that (M)’s closest friends arrived earlier, and were already gathered in the house along with my in-laws, so as we walked into the living room a very hearty “Surprise” and “Happy Birthday” greeted us. The room was already full of Laughter and Good Humor that lasted until the end of the party. And I knew that as long as Laughter and Humor prevailed, I would have an easy night.

And that’s exactly what happened. There was no mention of anything Mormon, nor was there any talk of giving demonic “treatments” to anyone’s aches or pains.

When Goodness prevails, it displaces evil. Outside air (spirit) is brought in through authorized channels (the Word) and is cleaned, filtered and conditioned to provide maximum comfort to the occupants. A spiritual “positive air pressure” is formed that pressurizes the “building” (in this case the birthday party) and keeps “dust” (sin) and “odors” (evil spirits) outside when any door or window is opened.

“Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good”.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
