

Letter 182
Something Good Actually Happened
2013-04-20

Dear Dan,

About four weeks ago (P7), the manager of (G6z), the department I work in at (G6), called every one on third shift into a meeting at 5:00AM.

He began talking about various things like budget, staffing, compliments, etc. Then he asked;

“Does everyone here know I am an employee of (G14), and not an employee of (G6)?”

Everyone there responded in the affirmative.

“As of the First of July of this year”, he continued, “I will no longer be employed by (G14), but I will become an employee of (G6).” Then he said; “In order to save money, (G6) is terminating its contract with (G14), so in the weeks ahead we will be getting all new equipment.”

As he spoke I begin to think about what had transpired last summer, documented in Letters 130, 131, 133, and have come to the realization that this is part of “Sealing The Breach”, or the fruit of the deliverance that had taken place at that time.

(G14), the management company that (G6) had hired more than a decade ago to save money, was being let go for the same reason. But that reason rests on the surface. The Spiritual Breach between Management and Labor that had occurred more than a decade ago that led up to (G6) having to outsource the management of (G6z) was sealed. The Satanic infection that entered through the Breach had been cleansed by the Word of God and the wound healed.

A New Day will begin on 1 July 2013 at (G6) in the (G6z) department. I pray that it will be blessed, and that the Word of God will prevail. In Jesus Name.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
