

Letter 188
Angel Gabe
2013-06-12

Dear Dan,

As I stated earlier, I wanted to write more about the angels that the Lord has put in my life. So, in the order of their revelation to me, please allow me to begin.

In the second half of 1999 the Lord led me in a friendship with another Brother who was having like experiences as me. This gave both of us some objective perspective, otherwise I might have thought myself going a little mad. I have already written about this in an earlier letter, but around this same time I was given another sign.

This event I think happened in the summer of 2000, after the Day of 7. One day I attended a Church service that was being held in a formal Church building. I was sitting toward the back, so I had full view of the auditorium. It was a Sunday evening and people were entering prior to the start of the service. Some people were, like me, already seated and settling into their spots on the pews.

As I was sitting, Gabe got my attention and then said “watch this”.

After a few seconds, without any visible prompting from anywhere (remember, I was watching and listening intently, waiting for something to happen), to my great amazement about a dozen people sitting and scattered throughout the rows in front of me got up all at once, en masse, and moved one or two rows toward the front. Individuals, couples and even a family or two all got up at the same time, in unison and perfect choreograph, and moved closer to the altar and pulpit. It was truly an amazing thing to see.

Gabe had influenced all who were willing with the suggestion to move closer to the front, then said to me that one of his ministries is to move people closer to Jesus and His Word. For me, that was a real time demonstration of proof and another sign that I was not being deceived by an enemy.

So Dan, as I write this letter I have ZERO room for doubt about these things. Even so, the Skeptic still has his place, and all things go through his desk for the meticulous Berean assault he wages on all data that I am exposed to.

And even after initial approval, old data is routinely brought up for periodic review to confirm it is still sound and in harmony with Scripture.

Many years ago I used to ask Gabe where we were at in the prophetic timetable, and he would answer with:

“WE ARE IN THE BOOK OF JUDE”.

The premise of my question presupposed my own concept that the New Testament writings in the Bible are laid out in a sort of Church History format, with the books toward the end of the Bible becoming more applicable “even as we see the day approaching”.

Does Gabe know “the day or the hour”? No, according to Scripture. But those who study Bible Prophecy certainly see the signs.

Yet, I have often wondered if Jesus was given the date of the Rapture sometime after He made the statement recorded in Mark 13:32, perhaps when the Father gave to Him the Book Of Revelation. Or perhaps even before that.

I'll find out someday.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
