

Letter 193

DREAMThe Word Against (G6)

*“So Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever,
a desolation to this day.”*

2013-07-21

Dear Dan,

The time and date right now is 11:44PM, Saturday, 20 July 2013. Earlier this evening I had been to a restaurant (G10) with (CB8), who is visiting with (M) and me at our house for a few days.

While at (G10), after we were seated at our table, I began to search for the Lord. I activated my iPhone and opened a Bible application. While I was looking, I noticed the time at the top, 8:28PM. So I told (CB8) what the time was and then asked him if he would pick a book of the Bible that had at least 8 chapters, with at least 28 verses in the eighth chapter.

He started with one book then another, then a third and even a fourth. None of these fit the criteria. Then after a brief moment of thought he said;

“JOSHUA.”

So I looked up Joshua 8:28 and, as we were sitting at the table waiting for our food order, I immediately knew that was what the Lord wanted me to see. It was difficult for me not to break into tears at that moment, because I knew it was the Lord’s response to something which happened just that morning where I work at (G6).

In the last couple hours of the work shift (on Saturday morning, 20 July 2013) I had contact with a co-worker (CS6) that was being delivered of three demons of fear at that very time. After clocking out at 5:30AM, I did my usual inquiry of the Lord, Who explained what had just happened and how this co-worker was delivered of the Three Demons of Fear.

To be sarcastic, the entire exchange with my co-worker was “crap-detail” at its “finest”. After I got home and went to bed I had trouble sleeping, and at about 7:00PM I awoke from a dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was at a Mountain Resort in Eastern Washington near the Pend-Oreille Lakes, of which my wife’s family have been active members for many generations. I had stepped into a big pile of dog feces (which had a strange resemblance to beef stew), and was at an outdoor sink with running water, cleaning off the sole of my shoe. There was so much feces that some of it splashed in my face while I was scrubbing the shoe off with a brush, so I washed my face with the water also. Then I awoke.

END OF DREAM.

Just before I started writing this letter I looked up and read the entire chapter of Joshua 8, and then knew I had to write this Letter, not knowing the title until after I started typing.

Here therefore is the Word Against (G6).

The Book of Joshua
Chapter 8
Verses 1 Through 35

Now the LORD said to Joshua: "Do not be afraid, nor be dismayed; take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land. "And you shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king. Only its spoil and its cattle you shall take as booty for yourselves. Lay an ambush for the city behind it."

So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai; and Joshua chose thirty thousand mighty men of valor and sent them away by night.

And he commanded them, saying: "Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready. "Then I and all the people who are with me will approach the city; and it will come about, when they come out against us as at the first, that we shall flee before them. "For they will come out after us till we have drawn them from the city, for they will say, 'They are fleeing before us as at the first.' Therefore we will flee before them. "Then you shall rise from the ambush and seize the city, for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. "And it will be, when you have taken the city, that you shall set the city on fire. According to the commandment of the LORD you shall do. See, I have commanded you."

Joshua therefore sent them out; and they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua lodged that night among the people.

Then Joshua rose up early in the morning and mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. And all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near; and they came before the city and camped on the north side of Ai. Now a valley lay between them and Ai. So he took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city.

And when they had set the people, all the army that was on the north of the city, and its rear guard on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley. Now it happened, when the king of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hurried and rose early and went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at an appointed place before the plain. But he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city. And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. So all the people who were in Ai were called together to pursue them. And they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city. There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel. So they left the city open and pursued Israel.

Then the LORD said to Joshua,

"Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand."

And Joshua stretched out the spear that was in his hand toward the city. So those in ambush arose quickly out of their place; they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and they entered the city and took it, and hurried to set the city on fire. And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended to heaven. So they had no power to flee this way or that way, and the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers.

Now when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai. Then the others came out of the city against them; so they were caught in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side. And they struck them down, so that they let none of them remain or escape. But the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

And it came to pass when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they pursued them, and when they all had fallen by the edge of the sword until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. So it was that all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand-- all the people of Ai. For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took as booty for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua.

So Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever,
a desolation to this day.
(Verse 28)

And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until evening. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his corpse down from the tree, cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raise over it a great heap of stones that remains to this day.

Now Joshua built an altar to the LORD God of Israel in Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses:

"an altar of whole stones over which no man has wielded an iron tool."

And they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings. And there, in the presence of the children of Israel, he wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.

Then all Israel, with their elders and officers and judges, stood on either side of the ark before the priests, the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the stranger as well as he who was born among them. Half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel.

And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and the cursings, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law. There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the congregation of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the strangers who were living among them.

Amen.

Blessings...
R. C. Theophilus
