

Letter 201
Contact With (CB7)

Dear Dan,

Yesterday morning after work I drove to (L20) at the leading of the Holy Spirit, to see if my brother (CB7) would be at his local coffee shop hangout. As I drove up to the store I could see through the window that he was already there seated at a table with a cup of coffee and a pair of headphones.

Being so occupied, (CB7) neither saw nor heard me as I entered the store and approached his table to sit at an empty chair. Then, as I started to sit down he saw me.

I began to articulate morning verbal pleasantries, but he did not take off his headphones or say anything in response. And I could see that as he looked at me, he wrinkled his brow, then scowled slightly. I then got back up to order myself a cup of coffee. After I was finished ordering at the counter I turned to sit back down at his table, but he was gone.

Immediately I inquired of the Lord, and then decided to sit down at a table with my coffee and fired up my MacBook Air like I normally do. While the Air was in the process of very quickly booting, angel Gabe began to explain what was going on.

He explained that the demons (CB7) has on board were being empowered, literally, by a greater (satanic) Power that has taken up residence in the community where (CB7) lives. This is why my brother scowled at my presence and could not say hello.

The Lord (Holy Spirit) encouraged me to do what I normally do and work on my computer while enjoying the coffee. But at the same time I could feel spiritual resistance occurring. This was not severe since I had felt pretty good all night and was actually looking forward to this time, having already been led by the Lord to do so.

Later, when I was driving away from the store I looked to my left and saw a building. It appeared to be either an office or apartment complex. On the mantle above the main doors in large bold letters was this word;

ONDINE.

I turned to angel Gabe and asked;

“Is that the Power to which you were referring?”

“Yes,”

he affirmed.

After that I went into my “Berean-analytical” mode for a while. Later Gabe said that the wrestling match had been effective and that Ondine had been defeated.

Blessings...
