

Letter 215
Confirmation
2013-10-13

Dear Dan,

The Lord most recently gave two signs that together confirm all that was written in Letter 214 and the preceding letters.

First, the other day as I was cleaning at the south end of (G6d) I saw a rather large beetle-type insect crawling on the floor. I crushed it underfoot and put the dead carcass in the trash. By itself this would not be that spectacular, but it did allow me to actualize the Scripture where it says that;

“And the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet shortly.”
Romans 16:20

But it was the next sign the Lord gave which confirmed Letter 214 for fact-certain.

What I am about to describe happened at almost the same time of day - Saturday morning, (12 October 2013), at about 5:30AM, and in the same men’s restroom where I discovered the Illicit Weapon described in Letter 208. But this time it was personal.

I had started to walk into the restroom to begin cleaning when I saw that the farthest stall from the door was occupied. But it was odd in that the stall door was partly open, and I could see there were clothes strewn about, and what appeared to be a fully clothed man seated on the toilet. I immediately began to back out of the restroom, and as I did I heard the man say something about changing his clothes.

So, I went next door to clean the women’s restroom, thinking that would give the man time to change and vacate the men’s room so I could clean it.

About fifteen minutes later, when I was done in the ladies room, I went to go back into the men’s room.

Using caution, I slowly opened the entrance door and started to go into the restroom to see if the Stranger was about finished. I saw the same garments spread over the stall floor, with no sign of any clothes-changing, and then decided I didn’t like what I saw and backed out of the restroom once again.

Now, “back in the day”, when I was a school custodian, I would have just taken matters in my own hands and approached whoever it was, to see who they were and what they were doing. But in the hospital setting, security duties like checking on strangers are more clearly defined, so after I exited the restroom, I decided to go to the front desk and ask for support from a Security Officer.

The same Officer that processed the illicit knife two weeks earlier showed up within just a few minutes, and as he was coming close to where I was standing in the corridor, he got a big grin on his face and said;

“IT SEEMS LIKE YOU’RE ALWAYS STIRRING UP TROUBLE.”

Then as he got closer he lowered his voice and asked for details.

“There’s some guy in there with clothes and junk strewn on the floor in the last stall,” I said.

The Guard entered the restroom slowly as I remained out in the hall, seated on a bench seat which was placed up against the wall for visitors.

After the Security Officer emerged from the restroom he told me that the Stranger was a Patient waiting for the Bus*. Then the Officer walked away to other duties.

The Stranger emerged from the restroom a minute or two after the Guard left. I was going to offer a friendly apology, but before I could speak the Stranger started talking, asking me why I felt it necessary to involve an “intermediary”, and why I didn’t speak with him face to face, and I could tell by his tone that he was inferring I might have been cowardly.

Sensing a building tension in the atmosphere, I replied with,

“IF I SEE SOMETHING I DON’T LIKE, I CALL SOMEONE I DO LIKE”.

While this exchange was going on I had risen from the bench, got my cleaning cart, and was moving it into position in front of the door to the men’s room, with me on the inside.

The Stranger then put his stuff on the bench where seconds before I had been sitting. All the while he kept talking, and I got the distinct impression by the disjointedness of his sentences that there was more than one “speaker” involved.

While he was talking I had already started to clean the sinks, so I didn’t hear in detail all the words that were coming from his mouth. It was my internal hope that my cleaning activities would help to distract and diffuse what I sensed could possibly become a conflict of some kind.

I turned and stepped back to my cart to get a spray bottle, which put me face to face with the Stranger. At that point he asked;

“ARE YOU A CHRISTIAN?”

“Yes”, I replied.

“WHICH DENOMINATION?”

he further demanded.

By now I had turned back toward the mirror and was in the process of cleaning the glass, so I said to him over my shoulder;

“IT DOESN’T MATTER.”

After some more disjointed sentences these words came out of the Stranger’s mouth;

“WE KNOW WHAT YOU DID.”

And at that point I pretty much figured that what “they” were saying had something to do with either the Word Against (G6), or more likely the Word of God Against Satan (see Letter 214 Volume 4), the audio versions of which I had been listening to at work on my iPod for many days since before the 9th of October.

I said to the Stranger “... I’m grateful...”, and I was going to add “... for what you are telling me ...”, because I knew then for fact-certain that what angel Gabe had been telling me earlier was coming true. But all I got out was “... I’m grateful.”

After he turned to go, the Stranger then said back to me in a voice full of contempt;

“WE’LL BE WATCHING YOU.”

After that the Stranger walked away.

Later on angel Gabe and I had an in-depth discussion about what had just transpired.

P. S. Angel Gabe, and all the other angels that I work with, keep telling me that what God has just done, what He did on 9 October 2013, has never been done before, EVER.

By that they mean isolating Satan away from his people. ALL his people. This was a complete surprise to ALL the angels, and more importantly to Satan and his armies. And I have even more stories to tell which confirms all this. We will be working on how to write these in the days to come.

THANK YOU “BIG-TIME” BROTHER DANIEL!!!

P. P. S. It is also important to note that, according to the Lord, this temporary confinement of Satan to Southern Tunisia has no direct or immediate bearing on Satan being bound for a thousand years as referenced in Revelation 20:1-10. That is a separate issue and will occur some time later at the start of the Millennial Reign of King Jesus on Earth, after the Rapture and the Great Tribulation takes place.

*Remember that the Bus System was the second battle front in this most recent war effort.

 (NOTE 2020-04-05: Except possibly to angel Gabriel, who, according to the book Angels On Assignment, has access to all of the Timetables of History, save but one).

Blessings...
