

Letter 218
End Game - Part 3
The Reluctant Participant
2013-10-19

Dear Dan,

There are a total of eleven days from 29 September 2013, marking the initial revelation that led to Letter 214, to and including the 9th of October 2013, also known as VS Day at (G6). And because this event has become so special to the Angels, I will now refer to this time period as "The Day Of Victory".

But what was really, really, really, (I can't put enough "really's" here), really, really "beyond belief"* was for me to know and see and hear Satan standing by the tree in my backyard for those eleven days.

And I really wasn't sure how I was to respond, so I kept checking with the Lord. And He kept answering through His angels Gabe and Gabriella.

One of angel Gabe's observations was that there would be a change in battle tactics by God's forces on earth in prosecuting the Wars for Salvation in the time to come.

Most recently Gabe also confirmed that a primary reason for the 11 day "pre-confinement" of the Devil was to give time for Gabe's CIA resources to analyze and assess just how the Devil's people would respond to being cut-off from their god. It is the case that Satan's total isolation first began in my backyard, and was later officiated and documented for public consumption in Letter 214.

This also gave me time to hear and document Letter 214. Sunday the 29th of September was the second of two days off I had from work. I was scheduled to go back to work Monday and Tuesday. That gave me time to think about things until my next night off, which was Wednesday 2 October. That's when I wrote Letter 214. And shortly after that I audio recorded the letter into the Prophetic Prayer that all the letters become when we listen to them on my iPod, and Gabe, Gabriella and I agree in prayer together before the Lord.

Every so often I would look out back to the tree and log and see Satan standing or sitting, but as the days wore on he was mostly sitting.

Gabe and Gabriella started to float the idea of going out to the backyard to take a closer look, and perhaps to stand with Michael and his Soldiers. I was a little reluctant, not because of fear, but because I am so physically sore most of the time and I am not the most "people" oriented person. But as usual, they eventually got their way, and we made two trips out to the backyard.

The first visit was in the late morning before I went to bed. I just stood there listening to Gabe remark just how close I was standing to Satan, about three feet in front of him. The thought occurred to me that I could put my hand on him, but I discarded that idea as quickly as it came. Then I saw to my right in the spirit the Holy Spirit coming toward me. He had taken the form of Peggy, who over a decade earlier I had met on the trail. When Peggy got close to me, my attention was drawn back toward my front where Satan was sitting, but I looked past and over his head toward a tree growing. I just looked for a moment remembering some of the sorrow the Devil had brought to the world, and then I said this to everyone there;

“THAT’S VINE MAPLE”,

And then we went back into the house.

The second visit was on the morning of the 8th in the hours before dawn. We went out to declare God’s word face to face to Satan. We will write about that in the next letter.

But the last time I saw the Devil in person was the morning of the 9th of October 2013, from about 30 feet away. We had all taken a walk on the trail that borders my back yard. As we walked I looked toward where Satan was seated on the log facing away from me, and for a brief moment he turned his head and looked at me and cast an evil thought my way. But it was so weak as to be almost unnoticeable. I didn’t get sick, not even a little.

After the walk that morning I went about my normal routine of getting ready for the next work cycle, and settling down in bed for some serious “before sleep” TV watching. But I managed to go out to the kitchen just after 12 noon.

And, just as prophesied, Satan, along with Archangel Michael and his Troops, was gone. Gabe had told me days before that they would take Satan THROUGH the Earth to Africa, in order to further confuse the Devils’ forces.

And so God brings to an end one of the last days. My continuing question remains unanswered. Just how many days are there in the space/time continuum called “The Last Days”?

My inquiring mind still would like to know.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
