

Letter 226
Sabbath Rest
Because His Yoke Is Easy, And His Burden Light
 2013-11-24

Dear Dan,

Many other good things happened in quick succession after the Words Against (G6) and Satan.

First, even though I was moved to a part-time basis at work, having been relieved of the Friday floor care route, which became official on 07 October 2013, I have been given other work every Friday except one, I really needed that day off to rest. Then, a job posting was put up for bid. It opened on the 7th and closed on the 14th of November and represents what must be the EASIEST job in the department that I work in.

I applied for the job and got it. I can move into the position as soon as the one I am currently working in is filled. Say two to four weeks from now. And get this. I will be working (still graveyard) Monday through Friday, with weekends off. That's TWO SABBATHS every week!! This came a whole month after the sign I described to you in the recent memo I sent. That's even MORE evidence! (Gee. Do we have evidence coming out our ears yet?) Then, after that, my angels and I attended a church meeting at (U14). This was the first time we had been to a church gathering since 2009. Two weeks later we went again and I took communion for the first time in over a decade. I am exceedingly grateful to our Lord for this.

At the first meeting, two different Brothers came up to me and introduced themselves. One went by the name (CB31). He was also one of the audio board operators. The other went by the name (CB32). I think you might imagine what that meant to me. After that, I joined (U14)'s online forum, and from that has sprung an opportunity to attend a home group not far from where we live.

There's lots more stuff like this going on in my life right now. Healing that is too numerous and hyper-dimensional to describe. But you can get the idea that when God says He is in control, well, He's good for His Word! As we draw near to the end of this year, the Lord has been sharing more of His thoughts on how to proceed with these letters. The plan now (as stated earlier) is to post letters such as these on the website only. But after sending you the first confidential memo, the Lord indicated that I should do more like those. So, with your ongoing permission, please allow me to send to you from time to time any additional memos. This way I will be able to write to you in a normal, unencrypted fashion. And there very likely will be a few more multi-media DVD's also.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
