

Letter 229
Looking Back, Seeing Ahead
2013-12-09

Dear Dan,

With the end of this year, 2013 A.D., the days of the rule of the Kingdom of Hell at (G6) and influence at our home will have come to an end.

The Almighty King of Heaven, God's Son Jesus, hears the prayers of His people. And in the spirit of a song by Petra, who in turn were paraphrasing Shakespeare, please allow me to echo these words;

"HE CAME, HE SAW, HE CONQUERED."

This is the title of the song by Petra to which his servant danced with His Sword at Lincoln Park in 1995, declaring for all to see and hear the Risen Christ Jesus and His Kingdom coming. Destruction to all the works of the Devil, Life to the dying, Comfort to the suffering, Sight to the blind, Hearing to the deaf, Wholeness to the broken, and the Revelation of the Whole Council Of God.

Now that Satan is out of the immediate picture for a while, taking on the rest of hell is proving to be much easier, but I still get sick from time to time. Yet I have reason to believe that will also cease after the new year.

The rest that God promised to us is close at hand, perhaps even days away, or at most by the end of this year, in the new work assignment at (G6).

Our gathering together at Church (U14) continues to be a blessing. We actually made it to a mid-week home meeting just streets away from where we live.

I am really looking forward to pursuing the triangulation research already stated in Letter 207. It seems there is a great deal the Lord wishes to teach us. And we are looking forward to seeing the Scripture written in John 1:9-14 applied and come to pass in my life in the days, weeks, months, and years to come.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
