

Letter 234
Gabriel And The Parable Of The Ten Virgins
 2014-01-23

Dear Dan,

In Letter 219 (19 October 2013) I discuss what it was like to have Satan in my back yard, and then for me to participate in a temporal judgment against him.

But there was something else I didn't mention which happened that now comes to bear. After angels Gabriella, Gabe and I went back into the kitchen, as I was standing trying to figure out what to do next, I saw someone walk in from the backyard through the kitchen sliding door and out of the house through the living room. He looked like the same one who angel Gabe had earlier said was his cousin Gabriel, who had joined the assembly at the last minute.

After asking, angel Gabe replied that he was indeed angel Gabriel of the Bible. And I thought; "why did he have to walk through the kitchen"?

We kind of joked about this over the next few days. "What's he going to do next, raid my fridge"?; was sort of my sentiment.

Almost three months later, on 11 January 2014, I had gone to work at (G6) and was in my janitor's closet getting my stuff ready. I walked back out through the closet door to see in the spirit the same angel standing almost in front of the door.

That's almost two weeks ago as I write this. Up until two days ago he had been staying at our house, and going to work with us at (G6) almost everyday. But the Lord sent him to my brother (CB7)'s house just two days ago.

But before he moved, he said he had a personal message for me, which then is also for any that may read these letters. The message was really simple.

Gabriel referred me to the Parable Of The Ten Virgins, Matthew 25:1-13.

So, please allow me to echo this same message.

Matthew 25:1-13

"Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.

Now five of them were wise,
 and

five were foolish.

Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

But while the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept.

“And at midnight a cry was heard:

‘Behold, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him!’

Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps.

And the foolish said to the wise,
‘Give us some of your oil*, for our lamps are going out.’

But the wise answered, saying,

‘No, lest there should not be enough for us and you;

but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.’

And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready

went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut.

“Afterward the other virgins came also, saying,
‘Lord, Lord, open to us!’

But he answered and said,

‘Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.’

“Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour
in which the Son of Man is coming.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus

*To paraphrase in the words of today, “Make sure you have your iPhone charger with you at all times, and that you bought the extended warranty!”

Is it possible that this is one of the few “doctrines of ignorance” authorized by Scripture?

P.S. 24 Jan 2014

As of today the Lord has been moving Gabriel around to three different locations on earth; from our house and then to my two brothers different locations, and back here again.

Triangulating?