

Letter 244
Repairing The Breach
2014-04-10

Dear Dan,

As I write this note, I am recovering from what has been one of the most potent conflicts with Hell that I have endured to date. This conflict was after the dream I had on 29 March. (See LTD-V5-L240). It's difficult for me to recall some of the details, but the Lord will help me as I write. I got so sick from this battle that I had to take last night off from work.

I had received an email from Deacon (C2), the (U14) Church Deacon who informed me of he and his wife Deaconess (C2)'s decision to leave (U14).

But, he stated in the email that the dinner which had already been planned for next week at a local restaurant was still on and that we were still invited. I responded that (M) and I would be happy to meet them for dinner.

And I resolved not to speculate as to why they are parting company, but rather to wait until I meet them in person to see how the Holy Spirit wishes to direct the conversation.

But the dream I had on the 29th had left me a more than a little weakened, as I was facing down the two archangels of hell "Uday and Qusay" in the dream. So when I got the email I really had to focus on the good things of God in order not to drift into the fear caused by "what-if's", etc. My last thought on the matter is that sometimes it's a good thing to change relationships if that's where the Lord is leading.

But after this, another attack emerged on the radar. By a Deacon and Deaconess choosing to leave abruptly, a breach in the Church Walls was created, leaving a GAP where evil spirits could find entrance. And since the 20th of October of 2013, when the Lord stopped a large Satanic assault against (U14) by surrounding the Church with the Ablative Armor Angels, well you can guess the anger that is present in Hell. And they blame me, of course.

So, within a short time after I got the email, my position of intercession became active and the breach in the Church Walls was sealed until such time as prayers can be prayed and another Deacon selected.

But Hell was pushing as hard as they could against me. For the first time I actually came down with a fever to go along with the intestinal evacuation. And I again felt like I had been poisoned.

To put things in more basic terms, "shit-detail" has now moved from (G6) to The Church. You can guess the rest.

But it helps that Gabriel is now part of our unit. He can go back to Heaven and bring back needed supplies and equipment, that angels Gabe and Gabriella were running low on. I now refer to angel Gabriel as “The Senior Officer”.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
