Speaking With The Tongues Of Angels
 2014-07-27

Dear Dan,

Last week my Angel Family and I were waiting for the store to open so we could go grocery shopping. While we were sitting in the car, I took out my pocket calendar book to see if the Lord had a specific date on which to proclaim The Heart Of The Son at PraiseTree. I had a day in mind already, so I looked at the date and asked the Lord, and showed it to everyone else. We all agreed on the date, and have made tentative plans. The date is going to be Friday, 8 August 2014. And unless the Lord changes it, we will be arriving at PraiseTree at or about 6:30AM on that day.

I chose that date because it will be the one year anniversary of the last day of life on earth for our dog Mycroft. And I thought, well, why not, that way the memory of his death will be redeemed by a proclamation of Life, and that more abundantly.

And on that day I will be allowed to Pray in Tongues again. Except for one time in about 2002, I have not spoken in tongues in over a decade. However, effective at midnight on 8 August 2014, this restriction will be lifted, for that day and forever.

Please allow me to explain how this came about.

After the Return Of The Gifts spoken about in LTD-V1-L10, I would pray declarative prayers routinely in languages not of this Earth. I remember one time, while still working at (G2), I was on my way to work one day, and found myself driving behind a School Bus. The bus was stopped at an intersection waiting to make a right hand turn onto another road. There was a deep ditch on the righthand side, and I could see that the driver was going to take the turn a little too close to the ditch. Then I saw the right rear drive wheel start slipping into the ditch, and I immediately began to pray in tongues, and the tire regained traction, allowing the bus to continue safely on its way.

But, I think it was after the Day of Seven was over, and I took the summer of 2000 off, that Jesus prohibited me from speaking or praying in tongues,

“BECAUSE”, He said, “I DON’T WANT YOU PROPHESYING THINGS THAT I DON’T WANT TO HAVE COME TO PASS YET.”

Lately I have been wanting to pray in tongues again, and I have come close sometimes, but angel Gabe keeps me from doing so.

But this restriction will finally be lifted on the Day that we Prophecy the Outpouring of the Spirit Of God on all Flesh at and from PraiseTree. In addition to this being the anniversary of the end of the Earthly Life of our dog Mycroft, it is also the number of the First Day of the New Week. The Eighth Day. This is also The Day of Circumcision, removing the Veil of the Heart.

The Eighth Day Of The Eighth Month in the Year of Christ our King 2014.

AVTOS.

Blessings...
