Astoria, Oregon - Part 3
Angels Jane And Joan, The Narsil Twins
2014-09-29

Dear Dan,

Tuesday morning 16 September 2014, after visiting the Astoria Column, we stopped at a restaurant so I could eat dinner. While I was sitting and eating I could feel the spiritual pressure of hell against me increase. But before I could really ask, angel Gabriel confirmed what I already knew, that there was some sort of a battle going on. This occurred at about 8:00AM. But it didn't last long at all, and I didn't get sick. So I figured that the other side wasn't all that interested in fighting too much, or something along those lines. But with that exception and one other time when I did get sick, there wasn't any opposition to speak of during all the time we were in Astoria. For this I was really grateful.

Wednesday night at about 8:00PM we were at another restaurant having breakfast. We were sitting in a booth, and angels Gabriella and Gabe were with me on one side of the booth, and angel Gabriel was on the opposite seat. Sometime during the meal I became aware of two more angels that had joined Gabriel on his side of the table. While we conversed and I started asking questions, he began to explain how these Two had just arrived from Heaven in order to begin serving Jesus in His ministry in the area in the Churches in Astoria and from there to the World. One of the things Gabriel specified is that they were there to minister the PraiseTree anointing in and through the Churches in the Astoria area. He asked me if they would be invited to our motel room. I said "sure", and after dinner we all went to the motel for the night.

I wanted to start processing some of the pictures and videos I had taken that morning and the day before. But while I was setting up my computer and stuff, it occurred to me then that in order to minister the PraiseTree Anointing, the newly arrived angels would have to know what PraiseTree was all about. I was then led by the Lord to set up my iPad and fire up the Song Of PraiseTree playlist, Parts 0-3.

While they listened, I began work on the pictures and video I had taken up to that point. But about two-thirds of the way through the music (Part 3 of 3), something profound happened. The Lord gave to me the idea that I should join the two angels, who were sitting on the edge of the bed with their hands raised praising God, and pray with them for the rest of the audio. And at the same time I was getting this idea, I began to experience one of the most intense impulses to act I have ever felt. But it was in such a Spirit of Love as to be almost overwhelming. Gabriel was standing behind the chair I was sitting in. This Loving Impulse was coming from the Lord, through Gabriel, to me.

So, rather than be overcome by God's love in my chair, or perhaps struck with lightning for being too slow, I moved over to the bed and sat between the two angels, and, taking them each by the hand, together along with angels Maiah, Gabriella, Gabe, and Gabriel, we all entered into the Spirit of Praise for the rest of the audio. This was truly a very blessed and anointed event. And something I hope we can do again.

Later on during the drive home, Gabriel said it was my job to come up with operational names for the new angels, which I had started to call "The Astoria Twins". Gabriel said the Lord did not want to reveal their Heavenly names at that time, so it was up to me to provide "cover names" for them.

After much thought and asking for input, I came up with two names. Both angels had a very distinct feminine "feel" to them, so I wanted names that would reflect their true nature and message.

I chose the names "Jane" and "Joan". This was because many years ago there was a TV show called "Joan of Arcadia" that ran for about four seasons. The show was about a high school age girl that could see and talk to God, and would receive directions to do things, much like Joan of Arc, who claimed much the same thing. While the character, played by Amber Tamblyn, was named Joan, her screenplay boyfriend, Adam Rove, would sometimes call her "Jane". Jane and Joan were one and the same person.

I also changed the name "The Astoria Twins" to The Narsil Twins. The name Narsil is from The Lord Of The Rings, and is the name of The Sword That Was Broken, which cut off the Ring of Power from the hand of Sauron. Later, Narsil was reforged and renamed Andúril - Flame Of The West. This was the sword of Aragorn, King of Gondor.

So, the city of Astoria, Oregon has a New Message from the Son.

"THE KING HAS COME.
WELCOME ANGELS JOAN AND JANE, THE NARSIL TWINS."

Blessings...
