

Letter 282
The Fall of Angel Chrioni
 2014-10-10

Dear Dan,

In the early days of my getting to know angel Gabe, he used to tell me things when I would be at work vacuuming and stuff, like he still does, although lately angel Gabriel has had more to say than Gabe.

One of the things that Gabe would say to me was in reference to the book Angels On Assignment.

In that book, an angel by the name of Chrioni is mentioned. Because of the uniqueness of that name, I would remember it during some my talks with Gabe, and as soon as Chrioni's name would come to my mind, angel Gabe would tell me that he had rebelled and joined with Satan. Of course I took him to mean that this occurred after Angels On Assignment had been published.

I think it was some time afterward that angel Jesse rebelled. When that happened, I remembered the discussions Gabe and I had about Chrioni. In a crass sort of way, Jesse's rebellion and subsequent outcast into Satan's camp confirmed and corroborated to me what Gabe had said about Chrioni.

Now that angel Gabriel has been with us for some time now, he too would mention Chrioni, and confirmed what Gabe had been saying all along.

As I thought about this and even did a little research, I actually found a clue in Scripture that seems to provide even more confirmation.

In order to set this up, please allow me to put forth quotes from the AOA book.

"There are many beautiful passages throughout the Bible that relate stories of angels. Because Chrioni had been a part of many of these events, he told me some of these stories, and it made them come alive!

In Joshua 5:13,14, the children of Israel had just crossed over the Jordan and were ready to invade the Promised Land. Joshua went out and saw a man with a sword in his hand and asked him if he was for the Israelites or for their adversaries.

Because someone asked me if this scripture was referring to Jesus as an angel, I asked Chrioni and he said it was not, because he (Chrioni) was there as the captain of the host of the Lord. When Joshua fell on his face to worship, Chrioni told him to take off his shoes; "for the place whereon you stand is holy" (Joshua 5:15). This is the identical thing the angel of the Lord said to Moses from the burning bush! (Exodus 3:4-5)." Chapter 13 Angels On Assignment

I want to juxtapose what Chrioni is reported to have said to Joshua that with what angel Gabe said to John in the Book Of Revelation;

8Now I, John, saw and heard these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.

9Then he said to me,

“See that you do not do that.

For I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book.

Worship God.”

Both Joshua and John wanted to worship the angels in front of them. Both were given a Word from their respective angels.

There is a marked difference in what was spoken, and how. All angel Chrioni said to Joshua was “take off your shoes” when Joshua fell on his face.

Angel Gabe said “do not do that”, both preventing and correcting John, and pointed him to true worship, that is to God alone.

Angels Gabe and Gabriella have proven to be true to God and to me. Even though I used to want to kick Gabe’s ass from time to time, I also trust him and Gabriella, and Maiah, and Mark and Luke with my life. And now I can do the same with angel Gabriel. And as I edit this letter, I can testify to routine, weekly and almost daily, events in my life that continue to prove their faithfulness.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus

P. S. Contrary to what one hears from the pulpit these days, there is no such thing as “the fall of Man”.

Men DIE. Angels FALL.

According to Scripture, Adam, and all of mankind through him, did not fall. We DIED. The preachers should teach rather of “the death of Man”. The preachers are themselves deceived, and by so teaching, deceive others.
