

Letter 326
Enter The Brothers Cherub
2015-03-19

Dear Dan,

17 March 2015.

Last Saturday a nice little wind and rain storm blew through the Snoqualmie Valley during the day when I was trying to sleep. But there was also a spiritual element to the storm. It seems that the forces of hell were trying to respond to my backing them up against a wall last January (see Letter 311 - Volume 515), not to mention all of our prayers against witchcraft.

I had a real difficult time trying to sleep, and I could tell I was entering into a wrestling match with spiritual forces. More than once angel Gabe started singing "Fear No Evil", the theme song to our prayers overthrowing witchcraft.

That night I spent some time trying to nap, but I was still de-resonating from the attack which made it almost impossible to fall asleep. I did however manage to rest a little. And I think I did finally sleep for about an hour or two Sunday morning, so we were able to make it to Church.

I think it was some time after the nap that angel Gabriel informed me that the Lord was sending two Cherubim to our group to assist in any more fighting that might occur due to my intercession and prayers. But what's interesting is that they are only authorized to fight at the Echelon 1.1 (Powers) level and above. Not at the Principality level (Echelon 1.0) because they are too fierce of fighters for the natural realm.

This means that, according to angel Gabriel, once I de-resonate from the most recent battles, I will not longer have burning legs or have my spirit become mis-aligned within my physical body. The Cherub Brothers* will take care of any fighting that needs to be done at the power(s) level and above.

I can foresee (because I have been told) that my battle assignments will become a whole lot easier because of their work. Thank you Jesus.

Now maybe my spiritual eyes will accelerate in the healing process so I can actually see my angel family.

* When I asked Gabriel what their names were, he said that they could not be pronounced in english, so later on we came up with just The Cherub Brothers. And they, the two Cherubim, really liked that.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
