

Letter 372
The Siege Of Bethel Part 3

Dear Dan,

What I am about to describe is an early example of the unique way the Lord reveals to me certain INTEL regarding what He is doing in His Body, and sometimes the World.

There was a Christian Lady that until a few years ago lived across the street from (M) and me. Her name is (CS10), and she is now in Heaven with Jesus.

(CS10), who was a divorcee, told me once that she, before moving up here from California with her two sons, had been one of the very first phone Prayer Partners with TBN. I inferred from that statement that she most likely walked in other related Christian circles such as Calvary Chapel, Harvest Fellowship, etc.

(CS10) and sons became friends with (M) and me. Sometimes I would go over to visit with (CS10) to talk about Church stuff, since she knew so many People of the California Churches.

One day on one of our visits (CS10) handed me a computer printout that was about three or four pages long. She said that it was a series of visions by someone named Rick Joyner. I don't remember if she wanted any feedback, but I do remember that she was concerned whether he was a false prophet, and that the visions might constitute heresy.

What (CS10) didn't know, and what I didn't tell her, was that I was already familiar with Mr. Joyner, having previously been introduced to his Morningstar ministry a year or two earlier by a man who was my friend and prophetic mentor. I took the papers and said that I would look at them when I had time. A platform of suspicion was close at hand with her attitude, but even then I attempted to walk circumspectly in not passing judgment until I heard the end of the matter. This happened some time before my motorcycle accident in July of 1995.

One weekend not long after she gave me the papers I decided I wanted to go for a ride on my Honda Magna. Then the thought occurred to me to bring the papers, and I could spend some quality time at a restaurant, studying them over a cup of coffee. I rode up to Monroe and went to what was the Dutch Cup Diner.

After eating, I started to read what Rick Joyner had written. They were a series of visions he had experienced about what was going to happen in the Church in coming years. And as I read, the strong notion, which I knew was of the Lord, began to emerge that I was actually reading what amounted to a Kingdom military intelligence report about upcoming operations the Lord was preparing to engage in.

(CS10) had apparently discovered a rough draft on the internet of what was to become one of Rick Joyner's books. Later on I purchased the paperback version, and very recently the Kindle version. Right now I don't remember the exact title, but I think it is called Epic Battles Of The Last Days.

Anyway, I gave what I read much thought, and the knowledge came in pretty handy later on when I was having my own series of strange and unique dreams and visions at Harborview.

But this is an example of what I came to know later as angel Gabe's work in revealing the truth to me without compromising my own position of belief. Covert Ops were in effect even back then. I just didn't know that's what it was.

The spirit of suspicion and accusation coming from (CS10) and that was attempting to enter my understanding of what Mr. Joyner had written was part to the Enemy's siege-craft plans against what was to become PraiseTree. But the Lord saved both (CS10) and me from the wiles of Satan through His own ministry of truth.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
