A Little Bit of Micro-Intercession Goes A Long Way
2015-10-18

Dear Dan,

Saturday 17 October 2015 6AM.

A week ago tonight I visited (U3) Church again. I wanted to go to see the guest speaker, (CS12), in person. This was so I could hand her an envelope with a paper inside that had the LTD URL written on it. When the right time came before the meeting, I went up to her while she was talking with (CB41), asked her if she was (CS12), and after she said “yes”, while handing her the envelope said these words to her:

“THIS IS FOR YOU”.

Later on during her presentation to the Body of Saints, at one point while she was speaking I saw an evil spirit pass before her face, and she grimaced a little. I wasn’t sure of the source, but I knew that she was under a bit of an attack.

Tuesday night I was thinking about what I had witnessed, and an idea occurred to me. I thought that maybe I could specifically intercede just for her, and demand that the evil spirits that had been previously assigned to her by Satan (and then later by Uday and Qusay) leave her alone. So, after checking with the Lord, I did just that.

I commanded the lead fallen angel that was sent to destroy her life to appear before me. After he arrived, I ordered him to lay face down on the floor, hands behind his back, and not to utter a word.

I left him there for a few minutes while I went and dust mopped a floor. On my way back I noticed there were about a dozen more bodies laying on the floor with him. I told him to get back up, then I ordered him, and all his people, to leave (CS12) alone. I ordered them to leave her family alone, and her friends.

Then I said what has now become my usual demand of the enemy these days; “leave now or get trashed, your choice”. They left post-haste.

And last night on my way to work the Lord reminded me of my doctor’s nurse, and how I have noticed she is not very happy when she gets to work. So I asked the Lord if I could do the same thing for her. He said “yes”, and later on in the work shift we did just that.

After that I was commenting to my angels how easy this is getting.

There was also a lady at work who I wanted to do this for, but the Lord prevented me. I wondered at that, but He assured me that this was for her good.

On a similar note, I think on Monday night I was out in the parking garage having a smoke.

Sometimes I like to stand at the outside retaining wall where I can look over the edge and see the freeway. But just below where I stand is a loading dock. There was a tractor-trailer rig parked in the slot and being loaded. I started to feel the uncomfortable feeling that I get when there is an enemy spirit close by and they are becoming afraid. The next thing I know I am sensing, and "seeing" a spirit come stand in front of me. I say to him "leave now or get trashed, your choice". He responded by saying that he couldn't. I tell him again to leave, and he says that he can't, because he is chained to the truck. A quick thought to the Lord informs me to send him back to the truck, so as not to leave a void that will later become filled with even more evil spirits.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
