

Letter 422
He Saw, He Knew, He Conquered
He Saw, He Knew, He Lost
2015-12-09

Dear Dan,

The only time I know for sure that the Devil and I knew what the other was thinking was when he walked into my bedroom through the door when I was laying on my bed (see Letter 213 Volume 4). The doorway is just past where the TV set is, so my line of sight was looking almost right at him as he entered.

When I saw Satan's face, which appeared both humanoid and reptilian at the same time, we briefly saw into each other's eyes. At that moment of time I knew, and he knew that I knew, and I knew that he knew, that he was defeated. And we both knew this at the same time.

Right after that was when the Lord spoke through and with me, and we sent him out to the back-yard. In this, there was complete knowledge in both parties (Satan and me. I first used the word "agreement", but thought better of it, and used the word "knowledge" instead. For those who are Born Again, it is unwise to agree* with Hell in anything, even, or should I say especially, if it is the truth).

But in the years before that, 2010-2013, Satan tried a few different ways to get to me.

One ploy was to appear in the spirit as a fatherly man, older, in his early sixties, dressed in a work jacket similar to one I had once worn as a custodian. I would attempt to perceive who this spirit was, but every time I started to pierce the shroud surrounding his projected persona, he would leave. I was attempting to see clearly whether this was a friendly spirit. I thought it might have been the devil, but I wasn't sure. In this I was obeying the Scripture where it says to "try the spirits".

But at the same time this was occurring, some graffiti appeared on the upright concrete bulkheads next to the trail behind my house. This is a place where the local "taggers" would hang out and spray paint their demonic messages. I would ride my bike on the trail to work, and I would see a spray painted stylized drawing of a humanoid figure very similar to what I was seeing in the spirit. The drawing also reminded me somewhat of a cartoon character named Simon-bar-Sinister, the evil madman who was the arch-enemy of Underdog.

Then there was the time for about a month that Satan tried to get me to befriend him. This overture happened only at work in (G6d), off and on for a period of some months.

And then about the same time he just flat out demanded that I worship him, attempting to seem like he had the greater authority at (G6). All this was not long after I got my first ADA letter.

And while Satan was attacking what I listened to, he also was trying to infuse me with his own attitude of blaming God for his own sin. In his mind, it is God's fault for him being cast out of heaven, and being destined for his final destination on judgment day. One of the Scriptures the Devil liked to throw at me was Romans 5:7. Here it is:

*For scarcely for a righteous man will one die;
yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die.*

And then there was the attack of APATHY which happened every time I went out into the (G6d) lobby to clean the Restrooms. I usually would clean these some time after 4AM. But each time I went out into the corridor to access the restrooms, I had to lay down on the bench seat for a few minutes because by that time I just didn't want to do anything. Now I know it was the direct assault of "Uday & Qusay", but at the time I was IGNORANT of their presence, and their work.

Fortunately this only happened about twice a week, whenever I worked in (G6d). These were the same restrooms where I found the illicit weapon and the crazy man that channeled Uday & Qusay, when they were venting their extreme displeasure of The Lord God Almighty and me isolating them from their father Satan (see Letters 208, 214, and 215 Volume 4).

But the one assault that Satan was using to the greatest affect, and hurt the worst, was DIVISION. The Devil's goal was to destroy the unique love relationship I have with two angels he really hates. Angel Gabe, because he has done so much to overcome the darkness of hell on the planet (see Revelation 18:1), and angel Gabriella because she helps Gabe. The damage that Satan was able to cause required a unique, divine healing of the Son. See Letter 210 Volume 4.

Yet over the years, as I was in the process of overcoming Satan's hatred and opposition of me being in (L3) working at (G6) by obeying the Rhema Word of Jesus to "just show up for work", I ever so slowly started to agree with the Devil that I didn't want to work at (G6).

From the beginning I never wanted to be there anyway for various reasons, and I was keenly aware of a spirit of hatred toward God's Word which existed at (G6) when I first started there. But ever so slowly I started to agree with Satan. This manifested itself in the form of a joke that I would say to angel Gabe once in a while:

"Well, this is one area where I might want to agree with him".

referring to the Devil not wanting me to be in (L3).

This seemingly small, benign joking agreement with Hell produced a tiny fissure in my soul that allowed the poisons of Uday & Qusay to begin to enter my mind, in very small amounts. But the practical aspect of needing an income for my household kept me in "overcoming mode" during this and all of the satanic assaults.

At this time I had only one Scripture as a weapon. It was 1st Timothy 5:8;

“BUT IF ANYONE DOES NOT PROVIDE FOR HIS OWN,
AND ESPECIALLY FOR THOSE OF HIS HOUSEHOLD,
HE HAS DENIED THE FAITH AND IS WORSE THAN AN UNBELIEVER.”

Another way I would deal with Satan’s mental onslaught would be to build a unique fantasy. In this fantasy I made a deal with NASA. The arrangement was that if NASA would set up my wife (M) with a sizable income for the rest of her life, I would volunteer for a one way mission to Mars. In the fantasy, NASA would provide handsomely for (M), while at the same time giving me what I thought I wanted most; which was being able to do work that would have scientific benefit to mankind, while at the same time living in a spirit of solitude away from the works of the Devil.

But instead, in the “earth-space” world, God sent Satan away from me for a very long time. And it was no small comfort when we recently went to see the movie The Martian in the theater, because it resonated with the defensive fantasy I had constructed years earlier.

It was at this time also that the Holy Spirit gave me the vision of Satan being removed from his throne. See Letter 154b Volume 3. I remember to this day where I was and what I was doing when I had this vision. It was a Friday, and I was dust mopping one of the corridors in (G6d) as I was passing one of the empty patient rooms.

Another way Satan’s assault manifested itself in my life was that I became very irritable with angels Gabe and Gabriella, and I would “joke” that when I died I would beat them to Heaven and find a place where they couldn’t find me. I said this because my spirit was so irritated I just wanted to be alone. This attitude was a direct result of Satan’s personal attacks against my mind and heart.

The ironic thing is that Satan’s plans all backfired on him. By my having to play the Disability Card to its fullest, which I received compliments of the Devil anyway, I became qualified for extra help from Heaven.

This included Angels of the Lord, Cherubim, and the Governor of Heaven himself, Gabriel. And finally there was the Word of the Lord God Almighty which came in the Spirit of Peace and Rest from within me that produced the Rhema Word of Jesus which became Letter 214 Volume 4.

But here is an interesting factoid. In all of my dealings with fallen angels or other evil spirits, no one from Hell ever acknowledges the existence of Faithful Angels, by name or any other way. They might refer to God, and Jesus, but I have never heard them mention any of the Faithful. I wonder why?

*The place where Jesus spoke about of “agreeing with one’s adversaries quickly” was made to His followers before He was crucified and resurrected. Those who are now in Christ in this Day of the “Acceptable Year” don’t have to agree with any spiritual adversary at all on any count, because Jesus settled all outstanding claims forever in His death and resurrection (see Colossians 2:14-15). We Believers have been given the opportunity to remind all of Hell’s Resources of this simple fact on a daily basis.
