Q&A With Gabriel Part 2
This Happened In Real Time
2016-01-31

Dear Dan,

Friday, 29 January 2016, 6AM.

Gabriel and I thought it would be good to continue with a series of Question and Answer letters. So, here is part 2.

Gabriel: "What is the priority of the Scriptures?"

Me: "I could say "Love", or I could say "Jesus", or I could say "Salvation", and I suspect any one of these would be of equal priority."

Gabriel: "Well said, and I agree."

Gabriel: "What is the priority of your life?"

Me: "That's easy. To Love God supremely. To Love my family as better than me, and to love my neighbor as myself."

Gabriel: "Again, well said, and I still agree."

Gabriel: "What is the priority of the World?"

Me: "Self."

Gabriel: "I agree for the third time. Now it's your turn."

Me: "What is the next step in eradicating Witchcraft from the face of the earth?"

Gabriel: "Continuing to proclaim the Gospel as outlined in Scripture, and having a ready ear and willing heart to pray according to the Spirit."

Me: "While we are sitting here, listening to Men at Work on iTunes, and waiting for your next question; a man that was in here (Starbucks) sitting at another table when we came in, just came up to me and asked for money, saying he needed to take the bus, but that had no money. He asked for $20.00. But I noticed the iPhone in his hand which had been charging up at his table. So I asked him where he got his phone.

"Well, I have money, just not with me",

was his response.

Then he volunteered that he had lost his wallet.

I then asked him where he lost his wallet. He started saying that he lost it outside while at the same time pointing with his finger to an exterior wall. I ended our brief with conversation with this statement about his lost wallet:

“... THEN I SUGGEST YOU GO OUT AND LOOK FOR IT.”

The young man walked back to his table, muttering something that I didn't hear because of the background noise in the coffee shop, after which I immediately put my earbud headphones back into my ears.”

Me: “So Gabriel, would you be willing to render any opinion about how I handled this?”

Gabriel: “Sure. Your response was from the Holy Spirit, Who knows that the young man is a “game player”, needs to learn how to work, and has a lying spirit.”

Me: “Thanks. So, after inquiring of the Lord whether I should have any further contact with the man, He said “No”. Do you have anything further to say about this.”

Gabriel: “Yeah. As you would have most likely surmised later, this event was setup in advance by the Lord so we could work together to give God's love to the young man, who needed to hear a firm denial from someone who cares. That would be you.”

Me: “Ok. Thank you Jesus. We pray for this young man, that You will choose him for salvation. Please deliver him from the lying spirit, and anything else that would keep him from hearing the Gospel. Protect him from the works of the Devil. Teach him Your Love.”

Us: “Amen.”

Blessings...
