

Letter 463
TURNGPT 03
Transfer of Ownership
2016-04-23

Dear Dan,

Tuesday, 12 April 2016, 6AM.

(M) grew up in (L7), with the house that her Mother and Father now reside in being her home of record until she moved out on her own after college. The job she and I met at (see Letters 5 and 11 Volume1) was only her second job after moving away from home, and from where she retired* in 1996.

(M)'s Father is now in his mid-eighties, and her Mom is not far behind. They are both suffering from advanced problems of old age. But her Father can still drive.

Because of this, it was decided about a year ago that they would sell their (L7) house and move down to (L3) to live with (M)'s younger sister. This is now becoming a reality. A buyer was found about two months ago, and offer and acceptance agreements were signed not long after that.

The house went into escrow about three weeks ago, and final signing is scheduled for this week, either Thursday the 14th or Friday the 15th.

When this happens, TURNGPT 03 will have been accomplished. It was at this house that one of the five Princes of Witchcraft assigned to the West Coast of the US had been stationed by Satan not long after my in-laws originally purchased the home.

It was my subsequent marriage to (M), and then being made aware by the Holy Spirit of the situation, and the subsequent overcoming of that Prince that the Lord used to began to teach me how to overcome Satan and Hell. This then became the beginning of the end of witchcraft in the U.S., and maybe even the whole world for a time.

But it was also at this house that (M) suffered abuse both from her Mom and her Dad. And she suffered sexual abuse from some neighborhood boys when she was young.

When the sale is final, (M)'s memories of those events will be able to be closed, and she will finally be able to start to truly forgive her parents, and her past.

Angel Gabriel has stated to me more than once that I will feel better as well, since I carry the memories of having to resist that Prince even before I became aware of his existence, and the strange things I later became aware of, and had to resort to, in order to overcome and drive away the Prince of witchcraft and his resources.

So, I await for this to occur, and will continue writing this letter after this happens.

Papers were signed, and the sale of the house became final last Thursday. But Wednesday morning my father in law, (P4), called our house. The first time I let it go to voicemail. But the second time I answered. It was unusual for (P4) to call us that early in the morning, so I thought he had something important that he wanted to say about the house.

When I answered he asked if (M) was available. I said she was still asleep. He began to explain that his wife (P3), (M)'s mom, was unresponsive. He wanted (M) to talk with (P3), to see if she would respond to (M)'s voice. When I offered to speak with (P3) myself, he continued to assert that she was unresponsive. At that point I recommended he call 911. With that he hung up abruptly. Then I woke (M) up and said that she should call her Dad.

Shortly after this, while (M) was still on the phone with her folks, I went to bed and then to sleep. But after I woke up that evening I learned that (P3) had indeed been taken to the Hospital, then later in the day released to return home.

The next day, Thursday, the Notary Public arrived at the (P4)'s home at about 1PM to officiate in the signing of papers to transfer ownership of the house and land. This occurred without incident, and the sale became final.

Last night (M) and I were in the kitchen cooking together. This seldom occurs anymore due to both of our disabilities, so it was kind of nice. But in the last week or so I could tell that (M) was "channeling" the resonance of an evil spirit of some kind. After I asked angel Gabriel about this, he explained that she was starting to channel due to the stress of her childhood house being sold. But it also has to do with that fact that one (M)'s cousins, (P16), has the same predisposition toward the Spirit of Witchcraft as (P3) had. In the case of (P16), since she resides outside of the Pacific Northwest, the spirits of witchcraft are still viable and active. Many years ago she actually had a room added on to her house for the express purpose of entertaining "spirit people". When I first heard of this I wondered to myself if she knew exactly what kind of "people" she was going to entertain.

But an attack became apparent when (M) and I were in the kitchen together. (P16)'s relationship with the spirit world presents a fissure in (M)'s family that continues to be exploited by the enemy. And as their only access left in the Pacific Northwest was about to close, the evil spirits made an attempt at entering through the vector of my marriage to (M). But all they succeeded in doing was tipping their hand, exposing themselves, and making me a little irritated and tired.

According to Gabriel, after they attacked, the witchcraft fissure at the Pacific Northwest end of (M)'s family was sealed shut.

Not long after this happened I laid down for a little while and watched TV with my angel family. But the prior assault of witchcraft was too weak to cause me to fall asleep. Now, with the sale of the property, their point of access is closed for good, and they can enter this region no more.

But there are still other vectors. Another of (M)'s male relatives lives with his wife and family in (L22). About 20 years ago he joined the local Masonic Lodge. But because of a prayer prayed for me at Church years ago the Masons are leaving me and my household alone (see Letter 20 Volume 1); at least so far.

Uday & Qusay take any opportunity to harass me any way they can, and this assault was of and by their immediate control and direction. Since these resources had never been assigned to the Northwest, they could get around the Word that ordered them to withdraw all their witchcraft resources that had been assigned to this area.

Last night at work, while moving an OR table in a room to mop under it, my left hand suddenly experienced a high sense of pain, like I was spraining it or something. It went away as suddenly as it came, and, since it was my left hand I looked at angel Gabriella and asked her what it was.

“THIS WAS AN ATTACK FROM A DEMON THAT WAS FLEEING THE RELATIONSHIP THAT YOUR WIFE HAS BETWEEN HER AND HER FATHER.”

“Oh”, I replied. “Doesn’t this sort of attack rise to any level of protection?”

“I ASKED THE LORD AS SOON AS I SAW THE DEMON
START FOR YOUR HAND,
AND HE SAID TO LET IT HAPPEN
SO YOU WOULD LEARN FROM IT
AND LATER DOCUMENT THE EVENT.”

“Ok” I said. Coincidentally I was also talking on my iPod Touch (via Skype) with (M) when this occurred. So, that’s what I am doing now. I learned from further discussion that this demon had existed in the relationship since (M) was a kid. Her Dad used to come home from work angry, and go for (M) to apply discipline. She would protect herself by crawling under her bed, and then, as she told me after we were married, she knew that if she could get her dad to laugh, he would no longer be abusive, and the threat of harm would be over.

Later that night angel Gabriel said that I should expect other potential anomalies like this off and on for about a month after the sale of the house, which will put it to the 15th of May.

*This was a forced retirement. The demons that had been assigned to the building where she worked were able to attack her after my accident with depression and harassment, to the point that she had to quit her job long before she achieved any age eligibility for retirement.

Blessings...
