

Letter 472
But He Sure Looks Like The Devil
 2016-05-21

Dear Dan,

Politicians over the years have relied on decoys, or body-double look-a-likes, to provide a certain misleading effect should they want to have some anonymity.

According to Wikipedia.com,

“Since deception is the whole purpose of employing a political decoy, there are many instances of alleged decoying which remain uncertain. Joe R. Reeder, an undersecretary for the U.S. Army from 1993 to 1997, has gone on record with claims that a number of figures around the world have or have had decoys, including Manuel Noriega, Raoul Cédras, Enver Hoxha, Fidel Castro, George W. Bush and Osama bin Laden.[4]”

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Political_decoy

And a Radio Free Europe article dated 9 October 2006 reports that:

As U.S. President George W. Bush calls for a regime change in Baghdad, U.S. officials have said they would have few regrets if Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein were to be killed by his countrymen. But any attempts to target Saddam may be complicated by the fact that the Iraqi president routinely employs look-alikes to take his place at public appearances or to disguise his true whereabouts.

<http://www.rferl.org/content/article/1101033.html>

One of the more interesting conversations I have had with angel Gabe occurred in the early years of our friendship. This had to do with the war of the U.S. against Iraq (actually Babylon). These wars would become known as Desert Storm and Desert Shield in the early 1990's, and Iraqi Freedom in 2003. Of course, the third war hadn't occurred yet when Gabe and I first became friends.

The Book of Revelation has an interesting verse that refers to “Satan’s Throne” (Rev 2:13). I remember asking Gabe one day in the context of this verse if he knew where Satan’s throne was “today”, which at the time I asked was at the end of 1999.

His answer was; “Saddam Hussein”.

I bring this up because when I first started to speak with (CB41) last summer and share with him some of the facts surrounding Letter 214 Volume 4, he mentioned that he was aware of at least one prophetic person that claimed to have had dealings with the Devil after 9 October 2013.

I really didn't want to argue with words from a third party, so I pretty much let the conversation subside. But later on I did inquire of the Lord as to whether there was any merit to what I had heard.

It was then that the Lord started to remind me of how Saddam Hussein had body-doubles, men that looked like him enough to provide a convincing cover, that he used as decoys when he wanted to travel, and of course to try to escape after the third war for (Iraqi) Babylonian Freedom began.

According to the Holy Spirit and confirmed by His angels, in like manner Satan has decoys. These are angelic impersonators that have been anointed with some of Satan's own personality in order to achieve a very lame sort of "omni-presence". Before his isolation, the Devil would be able to send out the decoys in his place if a witch, prophet or church commanded him to appear before them.

Uday & Qusay are now making use of these same decoys for the same purpose.

The only way that any of the above referenced spiritual operators could not be deceived would be if they were being directly led by the Lord Holy Spirit to have the Devil appear, since the Lord God cannot be deceived by Satan's con-artist tactics, and His Word is Omnipotent. In that case the Lord would explain who it is they are actually talking to - an impostor.

As it is these rogue mediums think they are treating with Satan himself, when in actuality they are speaking with one of Satan's subordinates, and all the while having the "wool pulled over their eyes".

Even obedient prophets can be deceived if they attempt to command hell without first being properly trained and authorized.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus