

Letter 499
Certificate Of Authenticity
2016-08-04

Dear Dan,

We do hereby certify that the writings known as the Letters To Daniel, Letters 0 through 499, and presently being hosted at the website with the Uniform Resource Locator of www.letterstodan.com, are authentic autographs of (REDACTED), writing under the pen-name of Romanus Christian (R. C.) Theophilus.

These are an exhaustive exposition of all things that the Lord Holy Spirit deemed relevant for public display pertaining to my life, both testifying to the truth and confirming the veracity of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and His work in the World He died to save.

No part of my testimony is fabricated or fictitious. Only errors in my own recollection or memory, or in external resources drawn upon for support, may alter some understanding of very minor details.

According to Scripture, it is the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth, that has led me in all of these writings. He and I and the angels that Jesus assigned to be with me, while in the process of discovering true things, have become fast friends. This is something that will continue and last forever.

This journey isn't over. Indeed, it is just now beginning. The New Day is almost here, because I can see the Blue Twilight just before Dawn.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
