What Profit Thee The Tongue?
2016-09-27

Dear Jesus,

Tuesday, 27 September 2016, 6AM.

I think it was Saturday morning as I was laying in bed that I was thinking about a spiritual matter, when suddenly my throat got a little sore. So I popped a lozenge into my mouth and let it dissolve as drifted off to sleep.

When I woke up, I noticed that the back of my tongue was a little sore. I thought it might have become irritated a little by my sucking on the cough drop, and thought no further of it.

But when Sunday night came and the pain was worse, I could tell that there was a yet another new anomaly in my body that caused me distress. The pain was great enough to make it difficult to swallow food. I checked in the bathroom mirror, and felt with my finger, and discovered a sore of some kind.

The next morning I stopped by my dentist to get his expert opinion. He said that something that came on suddenly like that was not too great of concern. My next scheduled appointment to see him was only a little more than a week away, so we decided to wait and see if there would be any change by that time.

Before I went to the dentist, the Lord said that He would heal the sore, and that I should not worry about it. But He did say I should go to the dentist and have it looked at.

At work last night, angel Gabriel began to explain why I got the sore on my tongue. He said that the sore was an attack assigned to Donald Trump, just before his first debate with Hillary Clinton. The enemy was seeking to sabotage his ability to speak. But due to the intercessory nature of our ministry, the attack was blocked, and I took what would have gone to Mr. Trump.

The Lord Holy Spirit then pointed out that I have a healing relationship with Him that Mr. Trump does not have. It is easy for me to believe that he will heal my tongue, so taking the heat for Mr. Trump was a way to help ensure that he could complete his first debate. If Mr. Trump had gotten this sore on his tongue, it would have been quite a challenge to focus on the subjects at hand. Debates are difficult enough without any added challenges.

Spiritually this also prevented any fiery darts of the enemy from passing through Mr. Trump's mouth to Mrs. Clinton or others. Those darts stopped with us.

One of the things You have said to me recently, on more than one occasion, is that You wish for Mr. Trump to be elected president. You indicated that he would be easier for You to work Your will in and through than any of the other alternative candidates.

So we have praying to this end, that the Holy Spirit would blow upon the hearts of “We The People”, and the Electoral College, and secure the election in Donald Trump’s favor.

We hope this will become a true thing.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
