

Letter 558
Enter Angel Galadriel
2017-01-06

Dear Jesus,

Wednesday, 4 January 2017, 6AM.

About two months ago angel Gabriel made a request. He asked me if I would allow another angel, one of his sisters, to join us for family TV time when I eat dinner.

Now, he knows I am not really a people person, and I already thought my bedroom was getting rather crowded as it was. But, after giving it some thought, and figuring out where she would sit, I ended up agreeing.

So now, when I ask angel Gabe to give the call for the rest of my family to show up, she is part of their number. I wait for the few seconds it takes for everyone to arrive, then I start up whatever TV show we are going to watch, and proceed to eat dinner.

Being the perfect gentleman that he is, Gabriel gave up his seat on the clothes hamper to Lady Galadriel, and he takes a stand to one side.

This last Saturday night I was taking a bath. While doing so, the Lord announced that he wanted to assign Galadriel to me to act as my personal angel. One that can come and go on my behalf and carry messages to and from Heaven.

This was surprising to me, but it also made sense since angels Gabriella, Gabe and Maiah never leave my side.

So, after Gabriella said that it would make our Father really happy if I said "Yes"; I agreed to this arrangement straightaway, not knowing at all what I would "do" with a personal angel who was both authorized and willing to do things on my behalf.

But my ignorance changed after I went to bed and had a dream.

This will be written about in the next letter.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
