

Letter 560
Praying For The Win
2017-01-07

Dear Jesus,
Saturday, 7 January 2017, 6AM.

At the start of the Football Season last fall, I wanted to pray that the Seahawks would win all their games.

But the Holy Spirit belayed that desire, and replaced it with His desire that I pray for the Seahawks to play their Best Game every time. Then He said I needed to pray for the entire NFL to play their Best Game as well.

That was a tough pill to swallow, but I did obey, and most every week I prayed for the whole NFL to play their best game.

But toward the end of the season I asked the Lord if I could pray for the 'Hawks to play their "Very" Best Game, to which He said "OK".

Now, as I write this Letter, the Seahawks are preparing to enter the post season with their first game tonight against the Detroit Lions.

But the other day, 3 Jan Tuesday morning on our drive home after work the Lord Holy Spirit threw me a curve ball. He said I could go ahead and pray for the Seahawks to win the Super Bowl.

I was really surprised, but I said "OK", and immediately prayed for the 'Hawks to go all the way this year and win the Super Bowl.

And I wanted to write this letter before the game tonight to document the answer ahead of time. But the Lord said I will have to see the answers as they happen.

Fine; but let it be known by all that I did and do,

PRAY FOR THE WIN.

Amen.

Blessings...
