

Letter 576
DREAM
The Mormon Man
 2017-03-05

Dear Jesus,

Sunday, 5 March 2017, 11PM.

Today I woke up twice. The second time was at 5:30PM, earlier than I like to awaken on the weekends. I typically wake up anywhere from 7-8PM, giving myself a chance to sleep in. But I woke up a little before 5:30PM, which is closer to the time I normally get up during the work week.

I had planned on waking up at 5:30 anyway, because I was supposed to leave the house by 6:30 to go visit my niece. However, she sent me a message saying that she needed to postpone our meeting.

As I was waking up the second time I remembered that I had the earlier dream, just before the first time I woke up, which was around 1:30PM.

I DREAMED THAT:

I was standing outside in a field with a Mormon Man, engaged in some sort of business transaction. We were both friendly and cordial to one another, maintaining our relationship at a purely business level. But in the back of my mind I knew he was a Mormon.

END OF DREAM.

After I woke up the second time I begin to inquire of the Lord Holy Spirit as to the meaning of the dream.

Here is what He says:

"The Lord Jesus had placed us in a position of intercession for the people held in bondage by the Mormon Deception, localized here in the Snoqualmie Valley in which we sojourn.

As it turns out, the Mormon Man was indeed the angel Moroni, one of the fallen angels that Joseph Smith received lies from, the doctrines of which became the basis for the cult known as The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

This maneuver by the Lord put Moroni on notice that his days are numbered and short, and that he will be required to set free all of his captives — soon".

"Amen".

Blessings...
