

Letter 615
POJA
Obsessive Compulsive Disorder
2017-08-13

Dear Jesus,

Sunday, 13 August 2017, 3AM.

About thirty minutes ago I woke up from a nap. After making a hot beverage I went to the office to do some computer work. But while I was taking my cup from the kitchen to the study, I started to get depressed, thinking about how isolated I felt by working graveyard for so long, and not being able to see the Sun while having fun participating in daytime recreational activities, along with the incessant chronic pain in my left leg.

So, I searched for something online to distract me from this latest depression, and found two testimonies about Obsessive Compulsive Disorder.

I watched one, which was posted on YouTube by Seattle Revival Center. Then I started to watch another report about Howie Mandel, when suddenly I remembered something that happened to me when I was a patient at Harborview Hospital in July of 1995. See Letter 261 Volume 5-14.

During the time I was there, I had dreams and visions. But I also was seeing and sensing things in the spirit that I had never experienced before.

EXPERIENCE NARRATIVE:

I was laying in my bed. The window was open to the outside. Construction was taking place outside to expand the hospital. During the day I could see cranes moving things up and down. But I also knew that the work activity was disturbing the ground and causing dust particles to fill the air. As I lay in bed watching, I perceived the room filling with dust, so much so that I could see it layering on all the surfaces and around the open window. Cobwebs covered with dust were hanging from the ceiling. And I thought it very strange that a hospital would allow such filth to accumulate in what I thought was supposed to be an environment dedicated to cleanliness.

END OF NARRATIVE.

Now, in order for one to have a more full understanding of this, I must tell some back story. At the time of this occurrence, I had been working at a high-tech bio-medical manufacturing facility that had two environmentally controlled areas, or “clean-rooms”. As Maintenance Supervisor, it was part of my job to have complete understanding of these areas, what made them special in relations to the other areas of the facility, and to maintain their high degree of cleanliness.

This is done primarily by conditioning the air with filters known as High Efficiency Particulate Air, or HEPA filters. These can filter particles down to a fraction of the diameter of a human hair. The facility I was in charge of was home to one of the largest “clean-rooms” to have been built on the West Coast up to that point.

So, as I lay in the hospital bed, recovering from sudden trauma, the normal dust which occurs from having the window open took on “new” meaning. I began to apply my clean-room training to my present circumstance, and then began to see an exaggerated interpretation of my environment.

Satan was also at work to make things “seem” much worse than they actually were. This is what turns normal sensations and thoughts into an Obsessive Compulsive Disorder, or OCD.

But I was also seeing “in the spirit”. The Dust was all the sins that were being brought into the Hospital by Air that was unfiltered with Love. Dust of the Earth was accumulating in large quantities in the patient rooms, and those who were spiritually sensitive like me would suffer all the more. This was one part of my motivation to want to leave Harborview as soon as possible.

Here therefore is the Prayer of Jesus against Obsessive Compulsive Disorder.

“Dear Father in Heaven,

Please hear My prayer to heal those who are afflicted with the medical condition known as Obsessive Compulsive Disorder. Remove all related demonic and satanic assignments from those who are being healed. Bring to order any disorder caused by Fear, Misunderstanding, and doubt. Inform Our People with the Truth of Love, and the Love of the Truth. For it is written that:

The Book of Matthew
Chapter 4
Verses 23 Through 25

And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease among the people. Then His fame went throughout all Syria; and they brought to Him all sick people who were afflicted with various diseases and torments, and those who were demon-possessed, epileptics, and paralytics; and He healed them. Great multitudes followed Him—from Galilee, and from Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

The Book of Matthew
Chapter 8
Verses 16 Through 17

When evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

*“He Himself took our infirmities
And bore our sicknesses.”*

The Book of Matthew
Chapter 12
Verses 1 Through 50

At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. And His disciples were hungry, and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, “Look, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath!”

But He said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him: how he entered the house of God and ate the showbread which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are blameless? Yet I say to you that in this place there is One greater than the temple. But if you had known what this means, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath."

Healing on the Sabbath

Now when He had departed from there, He went into their synagogue. And behold, there was a man who had a withered hand. And they asked Him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—that they might accuse Him.

Then He said to them, "What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not lay hold of it and lift it out? Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep? Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath." Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored as whole as the other. Then the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

But when Jesus knew it, He withdrew from there. And great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them all. Yet He warned them not to make Him known, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

*"Behold! My Servant whom I have chosen,
My Beloved in whom My soul is well pleased!
I will put My Spirit upon Him,
And He will declare justice to the Gentiles.
He will not quarrel nor cry out,
Nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.
A bruised reed He will not break,
And smoking flax He will not quench,
Till He sends forth justice to victory;
And in His name Gentiles will trust."*

Then one was brought to Him who was demon-possessed, blind and mute; and He healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw. And all the multitudes were amazed and said, "Could this be the Son of David?"

Now when the Pharisees heard it they said, "This fellow does not cast out demons except by Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons."

But Jesus knew their thoughts, and said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, surely the kingdom of God has come upon you. Or how can one enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

“Therefore I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men. Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.

“Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit. Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things. But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from You.”

But He answered and said to them, “An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here. The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a greater than Solomon is here.

“When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none. Then he says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when he comes, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation.”

While He was still talking to the multitudes, behold, His mother and brothers stood outside, seeking to speak with Him. Then one said to Him, “Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with You.”

But He answered and said to the one who told Him, “Who is My mother and who are My brothers?” And He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, “Here are My mother and My brothers! For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother.”

The Book of Mark
Chapter 1
Verses 21 Through 38

Then they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath He entered the synagogue and taught. And they were astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Now there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, saying, “Let us alone! What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!”

But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!" And when the unclean spirit had convulsed him and cried out with a loud voice, he came out of him. Then they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? What new doctrine is this? For with authority He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him." And immediately His fame spread throughout all the region around Galilee.

Now as soon as they had come out of the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. But Simon's wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and they told Him about her at once. So He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and immediately the fever left her. And she served them.

At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were sick and those who were demon-possessed. And the whole city was gathered together at the door. Then He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and He did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

Now in the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a solitary place; and there He prayed. And Simon and those who were with Him searched for Him. When they found Him, they said to Him, "Everyone is looking for You."

But He said to them, "Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because for this purpose I have come forth."

The Book of Luke
Chapter 4
Verses 31 Through 41

Then He went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbaths. And they were astonished at His teaching, for His word was with authority. Now in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon. And he cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Let us alone! What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Did You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!"

But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!" And when the demon had thrown him in their midst, it came out of him and did not hurt him. Then they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, "What a word this is! For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out." And the report about Him went out into every place in the surrounding region.

Now He arose from the synagogue and entered Simon's house. But Simon's wife's mother was sick with a high fever, and they made request of Him concerning her. So He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose and served them.

When the sun was setting, all those who had any that were sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them and healed them. And demons also came out of many, crying out and saying, "You are the Christ, the Son of God!"

And He, rebuking them, did not allow them to speak, for they knew that He was the Christ.

The Book of Luke
Chapter 5
Verse 17

Now it happened on a certain day, as He was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

Amen”.

Blessings...
