

Letter 686
DREAM
President Obama
2018-06-05

Dear Jesus,

Sunday, 3 June 2018, 5AM.

Yesterday just before I woke up at 7PM, I had a dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

My wife and I had invited former President Obama to our house for a visit. He was happy to be there, and I was offering him Food and showing him Hospitality, and giving him a tour of our house. Then, just before I woke up, the Lord Holy Spirit indicated that I would prophecy to Presidents.

END OF DREAM.

I woke up very tired and with sore shoulders, which meant that I had been wrestling with H.R. (Hell's Resources), and yet I felt comforted at the same time. I knew that we had breached a stronghold of accusation against President Obama, and that I had met the True President Obama in the dream. As I write this I am still in a state of recovery with the help of the Lord, and feeling better than when I first wrote about this dream in my field notes. Thank You Jesus.

For all of the years that Mr. Obama was President, there was a cloud of controversy surrounding him. This was especially true regarding the place of his birth. But You had given me a certain peace about that issue early on. This came about from the same Radio Talk Show host, Bryan Suits, mentioned in Letter 44 Volume 1. It turned out that both Mr. Suits and Mr. Obama (birth-named Barry Soetoro) had been born in the same hospital in Hawaii, at about the same time. According to Mr. Suits, the local newspaper at that time would report, by name, live births at the hospital. On one of his shows, Bryan mentioned that he knew of both announcements, his and Barry Soetoro's, having been documented in the newspaper.

Now, a certain amount of common sense should allay any notion of a grand conspiracy to have a foreigner named Barry Soetoro become president, on account of it is still impossible to go back in time and change newspaper announcements. If going back in time was possible, I (and others) would do so on a regular and ongoing basis in order to change the balance sheets at the banks where our money is held, adding many more zeros whenever it pleased us to do so. But I can't go back in time, so I have learned to live within the monetary means given me, and to accept the lawful election of President Barrack Hussein Obama.

Blessings...
